Forty-Two Ulster Men Released

Kidnapped Northern Irishmen
Are Set Free

Preliminary Work Must Precede
Border Discussion

Belfast, Feb. 17.—Forty-two Ulster Unionists, kidnapped during the recent raids across the border from the south, have been released. Michael Collins, head of the Irish Free State Provisional Government, today telegraphed Colonial Secretary Churchill that he had succeeded in obtaining the liberation of that number of prisoners.

Belfast, Feb. 17.—Return to their homes of a large number of the kidnapped Unionists has had a stimulating effect on public opinion in Ulster, but the situation on the border continues to be one of danger owing to the proximity of rival forces at some points.

News of the arrangement for liaison commissions on each side of the frontier also was received with satisfaction. Apparently, however, considerable preliminary work is necessary before the commissions can begin to function.

Defences.
Ulster's army of special constables on the border has elaborately equipped defences, including strategically placed positions protected by barbed wire entanglements and sand bags, much like the defences used in the world war. They also are supplied with plenty of firearms. It is believed that the "Irish Republican Army" is equally well armed and stationed, and the readiness of both sides is emphasized as a reason for quick establishment of the liaison commission.

There was some diminution yesterday in the reign of terror which had held Belfast in its grip for a week, but the peaceful element, despite its general relief at the comparative calm, has little confidence in a complete cessation of the hostilities until the temper of the rival factions further cools.

Another element arrived yesterday and was quartered in Ulster Hall.

In Cork.—When the mail train from Dublin arrived here this morning, a peaceful scene was witnessed as all the copies of The Irish Independent and The Freeman's Journal, both Nationalist newspapers, and drove off in automobiles.

The only incident reported early this morning was the firing of a shot at a watchman in the Mills Falls district. He escaped injury.

The local president of the transport and general workers' union, in a letter to The Belfast Telegraph, says:

"If there is no change in the situation on or before Saturday we will consider the withdrawal of all tramway men, motor drivers and carters from the streets for their protection."

BRITISH TROOPS LEAVE IRELAND

Dublin, Feb. 17.—The British military evacuation of Ireland is expected to be resumed to-day or to-morrow. It was reported that Michael Collins, head of the Provisional Irish Free State Government, on his return from London, where he interviewed Winston Churchill, Colonial Secretary for the Colonies.

General Sir C. F. Nevill Macready, British military commander in Ireland, visited Mr. Collins in the afternoon and the conversation, it was assumed, was in connection with the withdrawal of the troops.

Up to last night the troop movement had not been resumed but preparations were under way for the immediate shipment of hundreds of tons of arms.

Mr. Collins last night sent a telegram to the British Colonial Secretary declaring that the best help the Provisional Government could give in its present difficulties was to encourage the carrying out of the Anglo-Irish treaty in all its particulars.

Belfast, Feb. 17.—The executive of the Sinn Féin in Belfast after a meeting last night sent a telegram to Professor John MacNeill, Speaker of the Dail Eireann, as follows:

MARTIAL LAW IN SALVADOR; CADETS STARTED TROUBLE

Washington, Feb. 17.—Martial law has been proclaimed throughout the Republic of Salvador following a revolt by 150 cadets of the national academy on the evening of February 15, the State Department was advised today in a dispatch from American Minister Schuyler at San Salvador.

Great Bargains Ready For Dollar Day Sales

Retail Merchants Ready to Give Specially Attractive Offerings To-morrow; Appeal to Up-Island Residents.

All is in readiness for to-morrow's monster Dollar Day. Especially inviting bargains, specially decorated windows and offerings of the latest goods at most popular prices will be the big features of the day. The merchants of the city have made every effort to secure that this Dollar Day will be one that will stand out in history as the most successful on record, particularly from the standpoint of the purchaser.

It is the purpose of the retail merchants to bring to the consumer's notice the fact that peak prices have gone for good—that it is possible to purchase more with local dollar to-day than for some years past and that the goods are of the highest quality.

Dollar's Increased Power.
There is nothing in the nature of a sacrifice sale in to-morrow's Dollar Day. It is merely a carrying out of the annual practice of the local dealers and of those of other cities in holding a demonstration of the dollar's purchasing power at various periods. To-morrow's offerings will prove a pleasing surprise to the buying public, the dealers declare.

The business section will be crowded with eager purchasers, not only from the downtown district, but from all sections of the island as far north as Chemsuin, the Saanich Peninsula and from the Happy Valley, Sooke and Metochin districts.

One dollar is the maximum that it will cost any up-island visitors who come by rail for their return fare to the city, this dollar being made possible by the retail merchants, who will refund to the visitor anything over $1 paid for transportation on presentation of the return stub of their tickets over the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway. The B. C. Electric Railway is assisting by offering special reduced fares over the interurban lines.

Shops, hotels, restaurants, theatres and other places will be crowded to-morrow, and the City will present a busy appearance. Merchants invite everyone to inspect their displays, whether they purchase anything or not. The business houses of the City will hold open house for all, and owing to the extra trouble taken to make the pictures attractive the co-operation of the public is invited in order that the displays may be seen by as many as possible.

Many visitors arrive in the City by automobile from the outlying districts, and it is expected that the crowds will remain in the City over the week-end, particularly those who travel over the railway under the special week-end ticket arrangement.

Greater interest is being taken in to-morrow's dollar than in any of those previously held. The greatest degree of co-operation exists among the merchants and others to make the day a great success. Prominent window displays of a very attractive nature have been prepared, and street cars and other conveyances are carrying streamers announcing the event.

The merchants have undertaken a comprehensive advertising campaign in connection with the affair, and in to-day's and to-morrow's advertisements in The Times will be found some extraordinary offerings by all the merchants of the City.

Not Hurried.
In regard to the suggestion that the Dominions should be asked to telegraph their views, Mr. Chamberlain said the D. M. is not to be treated with respect and not hurried unduly.

Under the naturalization act of 1917 certificates of naturalization granted in any part of the Empire were not valid throughout the Empire. Under the new act of 1914 every person to whom a certificate of naturalization is granted in accordance with its provisions, is a British citizen not only in that part of the British Empire where the certificate is granted but also in the United Kingdom and in any Dominion which has adopted the act and in any other British possession.

$240,000 FIRE IN OWEN SOUND; WORST IN YEARS
Owen Sound, Ont., Feb. 17.—Owen Sound suffered the worst fire that has visited this city in years when the big three-story building on Second Avenue known as the Kilburn Block was destroyed last night, the loss being estimated at $240,000.

31,000,000 GOLD MARKS PAID TO ALLIES BY GERMANY
Paris, Feb. 17.—The German Government today advised the Allied Reparations Commission that the fourth ten-day payment of 31,000,000 gold marks was made this morning to banks designated. This payment is in accordance with the temporary schedule adopted recently by the Reparations Commission at Cannes.

De Courville's Production Now in New York
New York, Feb. 17.—Threatened "labor trouble" because English actors now here refused to join the Actors' Equity Association may be settled before to-night. Samuel Gompers was expected to call today and have tea with Albert De Courville, English producer, and there were prospects that the two would reach an agreement.

Mr. De Courville, whose London play is having a run in Manhattan, brought fifty-five Englishmen and women here for the musical comedy whereby both countries' visitors would join each other's organizations.

De Courville's production, "Hullo Canada," last night rejected the Smith resolution for a proportional representation electoral system with grouped constituencies in rural parts of the province.

FEDERAL MINISTER IN EAST KOOTENAY

Dr. King Returns from Ottawa for By-election

Progressives to Nominate; Conservatives to Meet

Fernie, B. C., Feb. 17.—Hon. J. J. King, Minister of Public Works, arrived in Cranbrook from Ottawa yesterday and will remain in the riding until after election day, March 14. It is reported here that the Progressives of East Kootenay riding held a meeting in Cranbrook Saturday and decided to nominate Mr. Bronson, of Cranbrook, as their candidate to run in opposition to Dr. King.

Conservatives will hold a meeting during the coming week, when it is expected they will decide definitely their policy in the forthcoming by-election.

GHOST AND PISTOL BOTH DISAPPEARED

Wisconsinite More Baffled Than Before Investigation

Waukegan, Wis., Feb. 17.—When the hungry ghost that had been heard about the home of Mrs. Catherine Mikolich, which he foiled a short time out of Saskatoon, was justifiably looking for it, Lieut. Arnold Nolan, an overseas veteran, offered his services in running down the disturber.

With his army pistol he entered the basement last night and seated himself near a table, on which he placed the pistol. The ghost had departed.

According to Mr. Nolan, he heard the ghost all right. The stairs creaked, there was a moan, the door opened and a voice said:

"Ah, now I see you," and a hand seized his throat.

The lieutenant reached for the pistol, but it was gone. The grip on his throat relaxed. He turned on the lights. The ghost had departed. And the mystery remains unsolved.

SNOW PLOUGH ON RAILWAY KILLED PRAIRIE FARMER

Saskatoon, Feb. 17.—Alfred Peterson, a young farmer living about four miles out of Saskatoon, was instantly killed when struck by a snow-plough on the railroad near his home.

Two other men who were with Peterson at the time had escaped injury. They were walking home from work along the railroad.

CITIZENSHIP ACT BEING AMENDED

Nations of Empire Considering New Measure

London, Feb. 17.—(Canadian Press)—At the department of the Secretary of State yesterday whether an interchange of views with the Dominions had yet been completed on the subject of the proposed amendment to the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914, Austen Chamberlain, leader of the House, said every effort was being made to obtain the concurrence of the Dominions with a view to the preparation of the amending bill.

Not Hurried.

TEETH WORTH $1,250 APIECE IN NEW YORK CITY

New York, Feb. 17.—A tooth is worth $1,250 in New York. Judgment has been entered against the city in the sum of $7,500 in favor of Miss Mae V. Tracey, Brooklyn, for the loss of six teeth.

The teeth were knocked out last April, Miss Tracey testified, when she was struck in the face by the retriever rope of a trolley pole.

VETERANS THANK CANADIAN PREMIER

Murdoch's Efforts Also Appreciated by G.A.U.V.

Toronto, Feb. 17.—Premier King and Hon. James Murdoch, Minister of Veterans Affairs, received the official thanks of the G. A. U. V. for their wholehearted efforts in relieving the distress among returned soldiers during the present period of unemployment. A resolution to this effect was passed last night at the meeting of the G. A. U. V. Dominion executive.

In order to prevent unnecessary immigration, the G. A. U. V. will inform the members of the British Legion in the Old Country of conditions in Canada.

BIG RAILWAY AMALGAMATION IN BRITAIN PLANNED

London, Feb. 17.—(Canadian Press)—At the annual meeting yesterday of the Midland Railway Company, the chairman confirmed the report that negotiations were proceeding looking to amalgamation with the London and Northwestern Railway and five other companies, which combination would have an aggregate capital of £327,000,000.

DISTRICT CO-OPERATION MEETING TO-MORROW

All those interested in promoting the spirit of co-operation between the City and the adjacent districts are heartily invited to attend the big meeting which will be held in the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

Those having views to present in favor of the farming and fruit-growing districts adjacent to the City will be present, and it is expected that residents affected will be present in force. Assistance will be given in finding and creating markets for their goods, the need of purchasing local grown and manufactured products, road transportation, irrigation and other important matters will be discussed. The question of establishing a pre-cooling plant will also be taken up.

SHACKLETON SHIP SAILS FOR GEORGIA; BURIAL THERE

Montevideo, Feb. 17.—The British steamship Woodville sailed to-day for the island of South Georgia, bearing the body of Sir Ernest Shackleton, noted British explorer, who died at that Antarctic outpost on January 5. The Woodville was escorted to the three-mile limit by the Uruguayan, which fired a farewell salute.

Commandant Hussey accompanied the body and will superintend its burial in the little English Church graveyard at Grytviken. Later he expects to rejoin the Antarctic expedition on the steamship Quest.

NORTH EDMONTON BANK WAS ROBBED; HUNT FOR THUG

Edmonton, Feb. 17.—The Union Bank branch in North Edmonton was held up about noon today by a man carrying a shotgun. He secured about $2,000 in cash. Police and townspeople in automobiles are searching for the holdup man. He left on foot but where he has disappeared no one yet knows.

STRIKE LOSS OF TIME INCREASES

76,070 January Working Days Lost in Canada

Unemployment Apart From Disputes Grow

Ottawa, Feb. 17.—(Canadian Press)—Reports which will shortly be published by the Labor Department present an anomalous situation. They show that in the month of January, while unemployment was still on the increase, there was more time lost through strikes than in either the previous month or in January of 1921.

They show that there were in existence at some time or other during the last month twenty-two strikes, involving 3,567 work people, with a time loss of 76,070 working days.

During the previous month there were in existence twenty-one strikes, involving 2,883 work people and 772 working days. In January, 1921, there were 21 strikes, involving 1,736 work people and 30,065 working days.

At the opening of the present year there were on record seventeen strikes, affecting 2,364 working people. As January progressed six more strikes were reported as compared with one the Christmas and New Year holidays.

Two of the strikes reported as having commenced during January, however, were terminated. This left twenty-one strikes involving 3,199 work people on record at the end of the month.

Unemployment.
At the same time trades unions reported to the Department a slight increase in unemployment. At the beginning of January, they reported unemployment (unemployment here does not include people idle as the direct result of strikes or lockouts) amounting to 15.1 per cent of the work force as compared with an unemployment percentage of 11.1 at the beginning of last December and of 13.1 at the beginning of January, 1921.

As reported by employers, employment remained at a low level during January, although considerable recovery from the Christmas and New Year holiday losses was reported early in the month. There were, however, numerous shutdowns for inventory and other purposes which caused employment to fluctuate considerably during the month. The situation continued to compare unfavorably with that indicated during the same month in 1921.

There was a further large contraction reported in the business transacted by the offices of the Employment Service during December, the number of applicants registering for placements made and vacancies notified all showing decided declines.

FROZEN BODY OF YOUNG WOMAN BORE MARKS OF VIOLENCE

Camden, N. J., Feb. 17.—The frozen body of a young woman bearing marks of fingers on the throat was found to-day twenty feet from the driveway that leads from the Kellogg Avenue bridge over the Cooper Creek to Forest Hill Park. Tracks of an automobile and the footprints of two men were found in the crusty snow around the body.

SOUTH AFRICAN MINERS STRAGGLE BACK TO WORK

London, Feb. 17.—(Canadian Press)—Since the South African mines reopened on Monday last, says a Reuter cable from Johannesburg, the strikers have been struggling back to work, but very few mechanics have returned. The mine management have settled down to a policy of getting the maximum return from restricted operations until a complement of miners return.

FORMER IRISH CONSTABLES MAY COME TO ALBERTA

Montreal, Feb. 17.—A colony for 11,000 ex-constables of the Royal Irish Constabulary and their families in the irrigation block of the Canadian Pacific Railway land in Alberta is proposed by the department of colonization and development of the province. The plan calls for the sale of 540 acres of farm land to each man under a salary of $2,000 for development purposes.

BILL FOR IRELAND IS ADVANCED

Given Second Reading by British Commons
Ulster Unionists' Amendment Defeated on Vote

London, Feb. 17.—The bill establishing the Irish Free State passed its second reading in the House of Commons to-day after Charles Craig, offered by Captain Charles Craig, leader of the Ulster Unionists, for altering the boundary commission provisions of the Anglo-Irish Treaty had been defeated by a vote of 302 to 60.

During the debate Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, Secretary for War, said that if the House should accept the amendment offered by Captain Craig, or if the boundary commission's decisions should be subjected to the Ulster Parliament's approval, the result would be rejection of the treaty and the wiping out of the prospects of peace in Ireland.

Investigation of persistent reports that Taylor had a large sum of money in his clothing when he was shot to death on the night of February 1, which has not been accounted for, attracted the attention of the sheriff's department assigned to the case to-day.

Investigators attached to the District Attorney's office also declared they had "by no means discarded the robbery theory."

Deputy Sheriff Frank Dewar said that at least one man previously questioned would be brought back to attempt to clear these up.

Railway Board Is Hearing Testimony of Interest To B.C.

Foundation Being Laid For Commission's Decision on Mountain Freight Rates; C. P. R. Traffic Manager and Chief Engineer Questioned at Ottawa.

Ottawa, Feb. 17.—(Canadian Press)—Cross-examination of W. B. Lanigan, C. P. R. freight traffic manager and first witness for the Railway Association of Canada, opened shortly before noon to-day in the freight rates hearing before the Railway Commission. Mr. Lanigan was preceded on the stand by J. M. Fairbairn, chief engineer of the C. P. R., who was questioned regarding effects of the Connaught Tunnel on operations of the C. P. R. lines through the mountain section.

Mr. Lanigan is expected to continue on the stand until adjournment this evening, when the Board probably will adjourn until Monday afternoon.

MAHARG AGAIN FARMERS' LEADER

Re-elected Head of Saskatchewan Grain Growers Twelfth Year He Has Been Chosen President

Regina, Feb. 17.—Hon. J. A. Maharg, M.P., is President for the twelfth consecutive year of the Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association. He was elected this morning at the twenty-first annual convention by what was represented to be a large majority over W. J. Orchard, of Tregreva, his only opponent. The vote was not announced.

Mr. Maharg's victory was popular and he was given a very cordial reception when the result was announced.

Mr. Orchard said he was satisfied with the result, it had been a vote of confidence in the President and now they should all get behind him. Ballots for the vice-presidential election were collected just before the election, but the results were not announced. There were five candidates, A. A. Baynton, George Edwards, W. J. Orchard, C. M. Emery and A. F. Hawkes.

SEEKING WOMAN WHO DROVE AUTO

Los Angeles Police Continue Murder Investigation

Los Angeles, Feb. 17.—Investigators attempting to solve the William Desmond Taylor murder mystery are seeking the identity of a woman who drove an automobile in a wild flight through Ventura, a town near Los Angeles, at 3 a.m. following the murder. From a garage man it was learned that she was beautiful and highly excited. She requested him to sell her as much oil and gasoline as the tanks in her car would carry. The garage man said while he was filling the tanks he noticed that she was nervously biting the tips of her white gloves. He gave the automobile man a bill and drove away as swiftly as she could without waiting for change.

It was learned to-day that William Davis, Mabel Normand's chauffeur who accompanied her to Taylor's home on the night Taylor was slain, was given the most strenuous questioning last night that had been administered to any person in the case. After the grilling, officials admitted that Davis had not changed his story. It was the fourth time he had been questioned.

Investigators of the District Attorney's office have searched for telegrams sent to certain persons prominent in the picture world. The files of telegraph companies in Los Angeles were carefully gone over and several telegrams found which are believed to have an important bearing on the case.

CABLE CONFERENCE IN WASHINGTON

Future of Former German Lines to Be Decided Britain, U.S., France, Italy and Japan Interested

Washington, Feb. 17.—An international conference to consider the allocation of former German cables in the Atlantic will be called in Washington next week, Acting Secretary Fletcher announced to-day. Representatives of France, Britain, Italy, Japan and the United States will be asked to meet and determine the disposition of the three cable lines taken over under the provisions of the Treaty of Versailles.

The cables are now being operated by Great Britain and France under an agreement with the other interested powers of France, Britain, Italy, Japan and the United States. The revenues shall be impounded and later divided among the powers in accordance with decisions reached by a conference on the subject. Under the present arrangement, Great Britain is operating the former German cable from Halifax to Penzance, while France is in control of two running from Brest to New York and from Brest to Pernambuco, Brazil. All the cables operate by way of the Azores.

Representatives of the District Attorney's office also declared they had "by no means discarded the robbery theory."

Deputy Sheriff Frank Dewar said that at least one man previously questioned would be brought back to attempt to clear these up.

CHIEF HAS NAMESAKE IN EXPORT BUSINESS

Chief of Police Worried by Liquor Exports of Man With Similar Signature

The export of large quantities of liquor, twice and three times a week, under the name of "John Fry" is worrying Chief of Police John Fry. For some time the police of the city and district have been intercepting liquor consignments on their way out of the country in launches, and by other means, only to find that the persons concerned have their papers in perfect order and that the affidavit of export has been regularly made and attested before a notary public.

In February the Oak Bay police intercepted a cargo of liquor valued at $300, on the launch Molly 3. The liquor was accompanied by the correct papers had been consigned to G. Wilson, Portland, with C. Wilson making the purchase. The affidavit, however, was signed "John Fry" and the papers had been regularly "O. K'd" by the customs. Another incident was traced on January 21 when an affidavit by "John Fry" to the same effect. The whisky in this shipment was $1,161 in value, and the affidavit was addressed to the Victoria Exporters, Ltd. Tracing the matter up Chief of Police John Fry discovered that the "John Fry" connected with these frequent exportations is thought to be of Swedish extraction, and gives addresses in San Francisco, and Seattle. He is said to be a steamboatman by occupation. In a letter from the Victoria Exporters, Ltd., Chief Fry is assured that there is no fear of the similar name leading to any belief in family relationship. Incidentally, the signature of the exporting "John Fry" looks like a copy of that of Chief John Fry, who in explaining the circumstances to The Times this morning, says he will not rest until he has met the exporter in person.

CANADIAN CITIES' BANK CLEARINGS

Winnipeg, Feb. 17.—The bank clearings in the principal cities of Canada for the week ended yesterday, as compared with the corresponding week last year, were:

TALK CONSOLIDATION COURTENAY SCHOOLS

Rev. Thomas Menzies Deals With Up-Island Problems

School affairs in Cumberland were taken up by the Rev. Thomas Menzies, M. P., for Comox, on his visit to his constituency when he met the Mayor and members of the School Board.

"The Courtenay School Board and district are actively engaged in trying to solve their school problem and one solution appears to be to adopt the consolidated school plan," Mr. Menzies said on his return to the Parliament Buildings here to-day.

"The school rate in Courtenay is $4 mills, while in the outlying school sections the rate runs from 6.5 to 12."

"A meeting is called in Courtenay for Feb. 24 to discuss the question of high rates and the Board of Trade has asked for a representative from Duncan to give some information on what is being done in the Cowichan district. Persons who fear that consolidation may increase taxes will likely attend the meeting to oppose some of the proposals."

Mr. Menzies said that at Cumberland there is need of a new heating plant for the school as repairs on the present old-fashioned furnace cost about $1,000 a year. The Board plans to install a hot water system at a cost of about $6,000 during this summer, he said.

"Owing to the Oriental population in the district, the Board has to look after many foreigners," Mr. Menzies also said. "At the present rate of increase there will have to be erected another school building in five years."

NEW WAGE SCALE IN BUILDING TRADES IS EFFECTIVE TO-DAY

The new scale of wages for the building trades, as recognized by the Victoria Builders' Exchange, becomes effective to-day. Contractors express the view that with the revision of the scale in the cost of building materials, there is every indication of a building revival this Spring and Summer. The new wage scale is as follows: Carpenters, $5; painters, $4.80; plumbers, $6; masons, $6.80; plasterers, $6.80; stone-cutters, $6.80; electricians, $6; sheet metal workers, $6; laborers, $4 and $3.50.

The former wage schedule, expiring to-day, was as follows: Carpenters, $5; painters, $4.50; plumbers, $5.20; masons, $6; plasterers, $6; stone-cutters, $6; electricians, $5; sheet metal workers, $5.40; laborers, $4.50 and $4.

The distinction between the laborers is skilled and unskilled. It was stated in building circles to-day that the agreement with the plumbers has two months to go before its expiration.

COLLINS WINS MATCH

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 17.—Percy N. Collins, of Chicago, last night won his second match in the International amateur class A billiard line billiard tournament, defeating J. E. Cope Morton, of Philadelphia, 200 to 135 in 23 innings. Collins averaged 13 in 23 and had high runs of 67, 52 and 30.

Morton's average was 8 1-23 and his best runs 45, 38 and 29.

Peltinger Beat Borba.
 Oakland, Cal., Feb. 17.—Sam Peltinger, San Francisco lightweight boxer, won a four-round decision over H. Borba in a fast bout here last night. In other matches Art Sharkey won from Goat Levin and Teddy O'Hara defeated Eddie Diggins.

Bowler Establishes.
 Cleveland, O., Feb. 17.—A world's bowling record is believed to have been established here last night when Marion McDowell rolled a total of 1771 for seven games in a special match with Billy Hess, an average of 253 pins. He rolled 279 in the last game.

CANADIAN BRANCH ISSUES BIBLE IN 110 LANGUAGES

Annual Meeting of the Local Branch Set for Tuesday

The annual meeting of the Victoria branch of the Canadian Bible Society is to be held in the Cathedral school-room on Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The Right Rev. Bishop Schiefel will give the chief address. Rev. Dr. J. Knox Wright, district secretary, will also speak. An offering in behalf of the funds of the Bible Society will be taken.

The Victoria branch is part of the great world-wide organization of the British and Foreign Bible Society, which is publishing the Bible in 543 languages, and saving all the branches of the church by supplying them with the Scriptures needed in foreign missions. The Canadian branch of this society is distributing the Bible in 110 languages.

AMERICAN LUMBER DEALERS TO VISIT VICTORIA SUNDAY

Big Party of Retailers Will Spend Afternoon in City

Retail lumber dealers of New York and Massachusetts, to the number of about eighty, will arrive in Victoria Sunday afternoon and will spend the afternoon here, returning to Seattle at half past four. While in Victoria the lumbermen and their wives will be taken for an automobile drive about the city by Victoria lumbermen, and later will be entertained at tea at the Empress Hotel.

CLAIMS WRONGFUL ARREST

Man Says He Was Arrested For Walking in Street.

Charged with vagrancy in the city police court this morning John Johnson was remanded until to-morrow for judgment. Johnson testified that he was accused by a constable on the street at 6:20 o'clock this morning, while on his way to look for work at the marine fireman's union. The constable told him to accompany him to the station, which he did.

Once there he was charged with vagrancy. He was not a vagrant, stated the accused, and had worked at odd jobs ever since his arrival in Victoria. In the last two weeks he had secured work on seven days, and was boarding at a house where he did odd work for his keep. The accused justly affirmed that he had been arrested without cause. In explaining his actions the constable stated to the court that he had found Johnson on the street this morning, and brought him to the station. The accused, stated the constable, had been in court before. The accused freely admitted this, having been discharged on a similar charge some two weeks ago. Magistrate Jay remanded the hearing until to-morrow to look into the circumstances of the arrest, and life of the accused.

Lee Kim, charged on remand, with being in possession of unsealed liquor, was further remanded until Monday. J. S. Brandon appeared for the accused.

RESOURCES OF AREA OF GREAT VALUE

Opening Up of Rupert District Will Produce Valuable Results

In visiting this city with the intention of securing official support to open up the Capt. Scott district, J. H. Wilder brings some interesting information regarding the resources of the western part of Rupert Land district. A survey of the country shows that it is of an exceptional producing quality, the country being suitable for agricultural and small fruit growing and also including productive mining districts of unknown value. Excellent timber areas are also a prominent feature in the resources. Mr. Wilder brings the news that a jam factory is in operation in this northern district, and only needs support to place it on a sound footing.

In the Holberg district there are already several mines in development, supplying ore of lead, silver, copper and placer gold, and development of this district will bring Vancouver Island resources to the fore. Seventeen miles of railway is to be constructed in this section with concentrator plants. Mr. Wilder, while in town, will endeavor to secure a grant from the Government to rebuild the dock at Holberg for the purpose of shipping the ore. At Dakota Creek 800 acres have been staked for mining purposes.

In the surrounding district of Cape Scott and inland a splendid agricultural district is open, and at Cape Scott the rebuilding of the dyke is underway, under the supervision of the dyke commission and will provide hundreds of acres of hay field while farther inland fertile ground for wheat growing is available. A little south of Cape Scott there is an immense forest area, supplying some of the best timber on the coast, but needs financial backing to secure development.

Mr. Wilder remarked that the majority of people are under the impression that Cape Scott is still a Danish colony as it was thirty years ago, but he wished to inform people of the fact that the settlement is wholly British now and with a little encouragement can be converted to a very busy and money producing area.

6,000,000 CHINESE FACE STARVATION

Floods Destroyed Rice Crop in Three Provinces

Shanghai, Feb. 17.—More than 6,000,000 people are facing starvation in the provinces of Kiang Su, Chekiang and Anhwei, as well as other provinces of the republic.

An appeal for aid for the famine sufferers issued by the China International Famine Relief Commission points out that it is not going to be an easy matter to obtain a relief fund for the second famine, "especially when we know that several millions more were collected in 1921 in the Government's famine surtaxes than were expended by the Government on famine relief."

TO BE HANGED.

Bracebridge, Ont., Feb. 17.—(Canadian Press)—George Cyr was sentenced by Justice Middleton yesterday

JOB PRINTERS IN QUEBEC ARE IDLE

Quebec, Feb. 17.—A threatened strike of the printers of the International Typographical Union employed in local newspaper plants is off. A settlement was reached last night at a conference between the employers and a committee representing the men.

While there will be no strike of the newspaper printers, the job printers are still out.

CHITA TROOPS TAKE KHABAROVSK

Peking, Feb. 17.—A dispatch received here from Chita, capital of the Far Eastern Republic, announces the capture by the republicans of Khabarovsk and the expected capture of Irkutsk.

Khabarovsk is situated on the railway about 350 miles northeast of Vladivostok.

WOMAN BOOTLEGGERS.

Washington, Feb. 17.—According to Treasury Department officials, women bootleggers are increasing, and are extremely difficult to deal with. They are particularly active along the Canadian border.

MR. BALFOUR'S PART.

When the people of the British Empire are in a position to review the work of the Washington Conference in a truer perspective than is possible now they will be able to form some conception of the manner in which their business was conducted by Mr. Balfour and his colleagues. For the moment they will be content to rely upon the formal appraisal of the British contribution to that memorable gathering which the eloquent testimony of the Prime Minister was intended to convey through the medium of an official luncheon yesterday. Nor is it likely that any subsequent reference to Mr. Lloyd George may make to Mr. Balfour's notable accomplishment will be endowed with any more genuine warmth or sincerity than the plain language of congratulation with which he framed his own and the nation's thanks. But as time wears on and the fruits of the Conference are gradually garnered in a harvest of peace and concord the memorable fight in behalf of humanity, and in hostility to the employment of the more diabolical agencies of destruction, which the leader of the British delegation so admirably led, will more closely associate the name of Arthur James Balfour with the first real attempt on the part of the nations of the world to remove the prime causes of international conflict. In that Empire recognition of gratitude for his special service there will be included a large measure of acknowledgment of the assistance which the representative of Canada and the other Dominions were able to render.

CART BEFORE THE HORSE.

In his letter published in our correspondence columns yesterday Sir Frank Barnard voiced some opinions that will agree with the sentiments of many Victorians who recognize that one or two phases of local development have amounted to putting the cart before the horse. It is not necessary to point out that just as the population of any community increases so is there created the automatic stimulus that must produce the inevitable industrial development.

Those communities which enjoy Nature's gifts in an abundance that especially qualifies them for initial development along recreational lines often postpone prosperity by ignoring the substance for the shadow. At the same time it will profit Victoria nothing to waste its energy and enterprise in useless recommitments. The course which this city must take is just as obvious to us at this juncture as it was a couple of decades ago to the meagre population of Long Beach when it laid the foundation for a programme that was destined to help largely in converting nearby Los Angeles from a small town of fifty thousand inhabitants into a great city of recreational diversion and profitable industry for six hundred thousand souls.

An amusement centre in Victoria is the proper starting point if the people of this city really want to bring visitors here and convert them into permanent tourists pass by instead of tarrying awhile because they want a little more than that provided solely by the bounteous hand of Nature. Surely Victoria recognizes that it would be profitable to imitate the thriving California resorts and give the inexorable laws of economics a fair chance to assert themselves.

TRIBUTE TO MR. HUGHES.

Yesterday's formal reception to Mr. Balfour provided an opportunity to the leader of the British delegation to the Washington Conference to pay a tribute to the U. S. Secretary of State that will be read with unfeigned pleasure by British people throughout the world. Had Mr. Balfour plundered the classics for a vehicle in which to convey his impressions of Mr. Hughes and the important part played by him in the memorable gathering which recently concluded its labors he could have discovered nothing so genuinely euphonious as the simple and honest expressions to which he gave voice. Mr. Balfour's experience of the old form of diplomacy furnished him with a basis of comparison with the new style of international dealings as portrayed by the spokesman of the Government at Washington. And in declaring that the ancient methods of conducting world affairs are now the target for general derision and contempt he sounded a note that will be echoed by English-speaking people everywhere. At the same time if the Washington Conference has not changed the diplomatic reasoning of all the nations of the Old World the day should not be far distant when the new programme of Anglo-Saxondom shall effect their complete conversion.

DECENTRALIZATION.

Decentralization of authority as far as national administration in British Columbia is concerned is hardly practicable. The additional cost and the inevitable demand for recognition of the rights of other Provinces would promptly be vital obstacles in the way of a proposal of this kind. On the other hand Premier Oliver is on the right track when he urges the Dominion Government to investigate the argument in favor of a re-arrangement of the control of the fisheries of the nation. In this instance there is a case and a good case for British Columbia. To the Maritime Provinces and to this Province would flow considerable benefits were they to be clothed with complete authority to control their own fisheries. As far as British Columbia is concerned we are in a position to administer these resources in a much more efficient fashion than a branch of the public service in far away Ottawa. It does not necessarily follow that we should be in any better position to deal with the many problems which confront us in connection with the salmon fishing industry; none the less if complete control were vested with the Provincial authorities it would be possible to introduce more elasticity into the efforts to settle these and other questions in which opinions differ on both sides of the international boundary. Decentralization should work to advantage in this connection.

HELIGOLAND.

Heligoland is now reported completely transformed from the once proud German Gibraltar into a sedately modern meteorological station over which a "garison" of seven men preside and conduct their scientific studies. The privilege of erecting the present institution at Heligoland was granted to Germany by the British authorities and it is safe to assume that as long as its activities are devoted to reporting the condition of the weather in the North Sea there will be nothing to interfere with its peaceful mission. But it would be as well for the Inter-Allied Commission to pay an occasional visit to the former fortress if only to satisfy itself that the tranquility of the surroundings is not being disturbed by operations that are not specifically registered on the recording instruments with which one associates the modern weather station. It need not be an offensive search—merely a reminder that the sentinel of the famous bight would be as good a place to bury howitzers as the other part of Germany which came to the attention of the Commission recently.

THE P. G. E. AT OTTAWA.

British Columbians will be interested to learn that the Premier of the Province is about to offer the Pacific Great Eastern Railway to the Dominion Government upon terms which do not exceed the absorption of the liabilities of the road. Mr. Oliver will impress upon the Federal Minister of Railways the desirability of adding the Provincial enterprise to the various systems which have been acquired by the nation during the last few years. He will not omit to mention his belief that the acquisition of the P. G. E. by the nation would not only reduce the operating cost of that system itself but also contribute to the more successful conduct of the other railways in this Province which are at present administered by the country's officials. There will be no particular attempt to discredit the Premier's theory; but we are afraid that any time the Dominion Government is looking for an outlet for more expenditure it will not fall over its feet in a hurry to grab another railway.

NOTE AND COMMENT

When Mr. Balfour said yesterday that the old diplomacy was now a target for general derision and contempt he handed Premier Poincare something in the nature of a slap on the wrist.

It was declared yesterday that a division upon an amendment to that clause of the Irish Free State bill which provided for a boundary commission would test the strength of the Government. It did; the Unionist amendment was thrown out by a vote of 302 to 60.

Michael Collins has shown that he is doing his level best to get the kidnapped Ulsterites released. If the people of Britain and Ireland will have a little patience Collins and Craig will be able to straighten matters out to mutual satisfaction and advantage.

We are told by an estimable lady from San Francisco that the "agents of the great tobacco trusts are sent out with instructions to make every boy—yes, and every girl, too—a cigarette smoker." We are not in favor of permitting either a boy or girl the use of the "fragrant weed" until he or she has reached an age of maturity; but is not the statement in quotation marks just a little strong?

LENINE PROBABLY WILL NOT GO TO GENOA MEETING

London, Feb. 17.—It is considered extremely unlikely that Premier Lenin of Soviet Russia will attend the Genoa Conference, despite the previous understanding that he was to head the Russian delegation, according to the Russian trade delegation here. Resolutions from hundreds of workers' meetings held throughout Russia have been pouring into Moscow recently against his going, the trade representative reports.

GERMAN SALE OF PLANES STOPPED

Shipload Sent to Denmark; Allies Took Action

Copenhagen, Feb. 17.—The Extrabland says it learns that officials of the Entente yesterday placed an embargo on a shipload of German aeroplanes which it was officially reported had been sold to China, but which was brought by an Italian steamship to Fredericia, on the southeast coast of Jutland. The newspaper adds that the suspicions of the Allied officials were aroused by the presence of German aviators among the crew of the vessel.

SASKATCHEWAN MAN CRUELLY BEATEN; NOW IN HOSPITAL

Regina, Feb. 17.—Believed to have been the victim of assault, a man whose identity is unknown was picked up by the provincial police in a half-dead condition near the C. N. B. tracks at Hudson Bay Junction. He is now delirious in the Prince Albert hospital.

Regina, Feb. 17.—Provincial police are investigating the suicide of Ernest Krueger, a farmer in the Craik district, who was found dead with a bullet in his head.

TWO MEN KILLED WHEN DYNAMITE HOUSE BLEW UP

Lake Hopatcong, N.Y., Feb. 17.—Two men were killed to-day when the dynamite packing house of the Atlas Powder Works at Landing, N.J., was destroyed by an explosion.

The two men killed—Fred Alpaugh, of Kenilworth, and Eugene Lemmon, of Ledgewood—were said to have been the only persons in the building at the time of the explosion.

The dynamite packing house is an isolated unit and was the only structure affected.

HIGHER AUTO INSURANCE RATES IN MONTREAL

Montreal, Feb. 17.—On March 1 as the result of losses of an extraordinary character sustained by insurance companies in this city during the past year, automobile insurance rates will be advanced one-third. For theft protection a flat percentage will be charged on the rate which is now charged for new cars, this rate to apply notwithstanding the age of the car.

200 FOLLOWERS OF GANDHI ARE JAILED IN INDIA

Calcutta, Feb. 17.—Two hundred Non-Co-operationist volunteers convicted of unlawful assembly have been given sentences varying from one to six months.

ALBERTA MEASURES.

Edmonton, Feb. 17.—Bills creating a bureau of labor, a highways commission and a minimum wage board for women were the outstanding measures which passed the second reading stage and received endorsement in principle in the Alberta Legislature yesterday afternoon.

GUARDS' BRIGADE WINS CLASSIC OF ENGLISH COURSING

London, Feb. 17.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Guards' Brigade to-day won the Waterloo Cup at Liverpool, defeating Beaded Bob in the finals for the classic of the coursing world. The winner was quoted at 100 to 30 against in the betting.

The Waterloo Cup, the blue ribbon of the leash, has since 1836, with the exception of the years 1817-1818 and 1919, been a feature of the Waterloo meeting held at Altcar.

BRITISH CATTLE EMBARGO AFFECTS CANADIAN BREEDERS

Toronto, Feb. 17.—That the British cattle embargo hampers the chances of Canadian Holstein-Friesian stock becoming popular with breeders across the Atlantic was emphasized by several speakers yesterday at the annual meeting of the Canadian Holstein-Friesian Association. The annual report of the directors showed that during the year 24 new members were enrolled. The registration of stock for the year numbered 16,221, a gain of 724 over 1920. Directors elected included: P. C. H. Moore, of Essondale, for British Columbia.

CHURCH PROTESTS AGAINST PUGILISM IN GREAT BRITAIN

London, Feb. 17.—(Canadian Press Cable)—The Lower House of the Convocation of the Province of York yesterday adopted a resolution regretting the revival of the prize ring in the form of public boxing matches. The resolution expressed the opinion that one of the most serious signs of the times was the alienation of public opinion from the Christian standard of morals through the revival of brutal and cruel sports.

CATTLE EMBARGO PART OF BRITISH MINISTRY'S POLICY

London, Feb. 17.—The embargo on Canadian live cattle will not be lifted as long as the present Government remains in power, according to Sir Arthur Griffith-Boscawen, Minister of Agriculture, who addressed a meeting of farmers in Herefordshire yesterday.

He said he was glad to report that the foot and mouth disease among English and Scottish herds was subsiding.

Some interested people, he said, were endeavoring to make capital of the outbreak for the purpose of getting the embargo on Canadian store cattle lifted. It really was a most ridiculous movement. The ar-ival of a few cattle from Canada would not affect the price of meat in Great Britain.

Canada, added the Minister, enjoyed a clean bill of health, but nobody seriously suggested that Canadian cattle were immune. The real authors of the agitation, which was thoroughly fictitious, to have the embargo lifted, he said, were the meat traders.

SAYS SERVANTS SKILLED WORKERS

London, Feb. 17.—Domestic service is a skilled job and the opposite of a degrading occupation, declared Lady Astor, M.P., presiding at a conference on unemployment among women.

"When I listen to the anti-women members of the House of Commons," she added, "I rather long to go to them as a domestic. It would be such a wonderful chance of what the soldiers called 'learning 'em'."

FEWER INFLUENZA DEATHS IN BRITAIN

London, Feb. 17.—(Canadian Press Cable)—The Registrar-General's figures show the number of deaths from influenza in London and the great towns last week totalled 759, compared with 1,444 in the week ended February 4, and 1,451 in the week ended January 28. Last week's figures were the lowest since the week ended December 31.

POTLATCH CHARGE AGAINST CHIEF

Head of Alert Bay Indians in Court

Vancouver, Feb. 17.—When Chief Billie Aseni of the Alert Bay Indians planned to make himself solid with the tribe by giving away forty sewing machines, forty gramophones, many blankets and loads of jewelry, the shadow of the white man's law was the only skeleton at the feast, for the white man's law forbids the potlatch, under pain of imprisonment without option of a fine.

So Chief Billie cut a fine tree, placed it in the middle of the imposing heap of gifts, and invoked the Spirit of Christmas. But his Christmas tree was suspiciously late and his generosity seemed out of all reason. He was charged in Alert Bay stipendiary court yesterday with holding a potlatch, but he explained that his party was the only way in which he could acknowledge numerous kindnesses received from friends. The case was adjourned.

One estimate places the cost of Billie's "spending jag" at $10,000.

FEW IRISHMEN COME TO CANADA

1,422 in 1921; to United States 11,417 Migrated

London, Feb. 17.—(Canadian Press Cable)—As to how the creation of the Irish Free State will affect emigration from Ireland is naturally to some extent a matter of speculation. The Sinn Feiners have been generally opposed to emigration and probably the Northern territory will adopt much the same attitude as long as there remains any menace of hostility between the different sections of the country.

As one commentator who has been following the cattle embargo controversy put it, "both sides prefer to have them killed on the spot rather than after transportation."

For months there has not been a single emigrant for Canada leaving Queenstown or Dublin. Irish emigration to Canada last year totalled 1,422, against 2,109 in 1920.

Emigration to the United States last year was 11,417, against 12,228 in 1920.

CHINESE PLAN BEING OPPOSED

Peking, Feb. 17.—British and American Legations are opposing the consolidation of the salt and surplus loans. They take the ground that the Government list is discriminatory, in that it excludes bona fide British and American credits and includes doubtful credits which have never been secured by the salt surplus.

DAUGHTER HAD TO HELP MOTHER

Now Can Do All Her Housework Alone Because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her

Jasper, Minn.—"I saw in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and took it because I was having such pains in my stomach and through my back that I could not do my work. I had tried other medicines, but none did me the good that your Vegetable Compound did. Now I am able to do all my work alone while before I had my daughter staying at home to do it. I have told a number of friends what it has done for me and give you permission to use my letter as a testimonial." — Mrs. JESSIE PETERSEN, Route 1, Jasper, Minn.

There is no better reason for your trying Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound than this—it has helped other women. So if you suffer from displacements, irregularities, backache, nervousness or are passing through the Change of Life remember this splendid medicine. What it did for Mrs. Petersen it may do for you.

The Vegetable Compound stands upon a foundation of nearly fifty years of service.

MARRIAGE VELLUM FOR PRINCESS MARY

Charming Gift From British Residents in New York

New York, Feb. 17.—An item of some interest relating to the coming marriage of Princess Mary of England and Viscount Lascelles in February, is on view in New York at the Art Centre. It is a beautifully illuminated volume on vellum containing the marriage service of the Church of England, and was designed and executed for the Princess Mary and her future consort by Ernest Clegg, a well known artist illuminator resident in New York. The little volume, which is four and a half inches wide by five and a half inches high, is the gift to the Princess Mary of a group of British residents in this city, who for the present remain anonymous. It is a beautiful volume, ever, that the prime movers behind the gift are two sisters who have been close to the royal family.

The volume is hand lettered with a quill pen throughout in the simple and exquisite style of the thirteenth century monk copyists, and all the initials are illuminated in gold and color. The front cover will bear the coat of arms of the Princess and the back that of Viscount Lascelles. The full names of the Princess and her husband to be will be written in at the proper points at a later date. There are seventeen pages in all of the minutely lettered service. The entire effect of the volume is that of great beauty and simplicity.

The artist, Ernest Clegg, is a British subject who for five years prior to the war was a resident of New York. At the start of the war he went to England and served five years in the British Expeditionary Forces, chiefly as a major of the Bedfordshire Regiment. He is one of the best modern exponents of the art of illumination as it was practiced in the Middle Ages and has been revived by a few modern craftsmen. His exhibition at the Art Centre includes an interesting illuminated version of "In Flanders Fields."

BELIEVE WRONG MAN WAS HANGED

Pennsylvania Now Looking for Another Man

Newcastle, Pa., Feb. 17.—A murder committed fourteen years ago and for which a man was hanged was brought to the fore again yesterday when a warrant charging another man with the killing was issued. Seelye Houk, a game warden, was the victim. The authorities arrested Rocky Racco, who was convicted of murder and hanged in 1909.

For a year County Detective J. N. Dunlap, who said he had discovered new evidence, has been investigating the case and yesterday he swore out a warrant charging Jim Murdock with killing the warden. Murdock has not been apprehended.

LOWER TOTALS OF PASSENGERS

Higher Fares Affect British Railway and Omnibus Systems

London, Feb. 17.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Following the announcement by the London and Brighton Railway that 9,000,000 fewer passengers were carried last year, owing to the higher fares, the London Underground Railway and Omnibus Combine published figures showing a decrease of 72,000,000 in the number of passengers carried in 1921 as compared with 1920. The total number of passengers carried in 1921 was 1,000,000,000.

JUDGES APPOINTED.

Ottawa, Feb. 17.—R. G. Fisher, London, has been appointed to the Supreme Court of Ontario in succession to the late Sir Glenholme Falconbridge, and James A. Milligan, K. ### EUROPE WIPING OUT PASSPORT NUISANCE

Tourists May Soon Go Around Globe Unhindered

Washington, Feb. 17.—The passing of the passport is gradually being brought about in response to a growing disposition on the part of the nations to get rid of burdensome war time regulations of travel. Persons prominent in diplomatic affairs here unhesitatingly predict that as a consequence the time is not far distant when tourists may girdle the globe virtually as unhindered as in the days before 1914.

The agitation for a removal of the necessity for consular visas upon passports and a letting down of the bars in border regulations had its inception and strongest backing among the business men of all nations. Restrictions upon travel have retarded upon the commercial life of those nations accustomed to gather large yearly harvests from the well filled pockets of foreign visitors. It was pointed out, and that reaction to the pinch of war time necessity is likely to carry the pendulum of travel restrictions back to its old position.

Belgium was the first to ease the restrictions upon travel imposed at the beginning of the war. Convinced that the necessity for rigid examination of visitors was at an end with the coming of peace, the Brussels Government so modified its restrictions that persons passing through Belgium en route to other countries and persons intending to visit Belgium for a period not greater than ninety days, might do so without credentials.

That move was followed by agitation in Switzerland for similar letting down of the bars, and the recent action of Switzerland in granting permission for visitors to enter the country without passport restrictions is believed to be indicative of the trend of thought in virtually all the other European countries.

The position of the United States is somewhat different from that of its sister nations, as explained by officials of the State Department. America's restrictions on immigration make it vitally important that the influx be carefully sorted at its points of origin. It is said, and for that reason all persons intending to enter this country must appear before an American consul and have their passports approved with a visa. By so doing the prospective immigrant is spared a trip to this country and his return home without being allowed to land because the quota of nationals of his particular country allowed to enter America under the new immigration law had been filled before the immigrant's arrival here. The provision for culling immigrants abroad was laid down by Congress in an effort to facilitate operation of the immigration laws, and there is little prospect that the rigid rule requiring passport visas will be rescinded, it is said.

Other nations adopted the custom of requiring visas on passports soon after the American law went into effect, but their action was rather in the nature of a retaliation for what was believed to be an undue hardship imposed on their subjects by the American regulation. It is said that sentiment abroad is veering to the belief that retaliation has not paid and it would be well to make travel as convenient for visitors—American and others—as possible. The action of Belgium and Switzerland was cited in support of that belief, inasmuch as those two countries decided to remove restrictions from American travelers without demanding a reciprocal arrangement in this country.

The irascible invalid drew in a quick, sharp breath.

"No, of course it doesn't," he blurted out. "And if your legs were swollen it wouldn't worry me, either!"

FOR CHILDREN THE SANDMAN STORY FOR T-O-N-I-G-H-T

THE DUNGEON OF JEWELS. Part I.

Princess Marie was very sad for though she was a Princess she was hungry and there was no food in the Palace but some crusts of bread.

How was it, you wonder, that a Princess could be so poor? I will tell you. The Princess's father, the King had gone to war. He had been gone for a year now, and the Queen and her daughter had not heard from him.

Whether the other King with whom he was in battle had overpowered him and made him a prisoner or whether he was dead they did not

Princess Marie sat upon a couch beside a wall in one of the Palace rooms. She was leaning against it, and rolling her head from side to side looking about the room that had become shabby from neglect when suddenly she felt with the back of her hand something like a button on the wall.

Jumping up on her knees she ran her hands over the wall and to her surprise as she pressed against the button-like object the satin-draped walls slowly opened.

Marie was more astonished than frightened for the Palace was very old and she had seen dungeons and secret panels in walls before, but this was in her own room and instead of a closet which she had seen when other secret doors had opened this one disclosed a flight of stone steps.

Jumping over the coach Princess Marie walked down the flight of steps, her eyes growing accustomed to the darkness as she went. But when she reached the bottom she found nothing but a big iron door which she could not open.

Running up the steps she called to her mother and told her what she had found but before they could decide how the door could be opened a great noise was heard outside and running to a window Marie saw an army of soldiers dashing along the road towards the Palace. "Your father is beaten, the battle has turned against him," cried the King in terror. "The victorious Queen has come to take us prisoners." "Quick, mother," said the Princess, "we can hide in the secret passage. They will never find us and it will be better to die there than to be taken prisoners."

Princess Marie almost dragged her mother into the opening and pushed the wall into place. She had scarcely done so when the tramping of the soldiers could be heard as they entered the Palace.

Partly from fright and partly because of the darkness Marie and the Queen stumbled and down the stone steps they both rolled landing with such force against the iron door at the bottom that it swung open.

Quickly picking herself up Princess Marie pulled her mother into the room into which the iron door opened and closed it and as it swung into place it made a hollow sound like the closing of a door to a dungeon.

LADYSMITH CONCERT WAS A SUCCESS

Under the Auspices of Local Moose Lodge

(By Times Correspondent)
Ladysmith, a highly successful concert, organized by the Ladysmith Lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose, to which the general public had been invited, was held in the Odd Fellows hall, under the chairmanship of the dictator, Bro. W. Cullen. The recently organized Apollo Orchestra, conducted by A. J. Merry, made its first public appearance, and its contributions to the programme were thoroughly enjoyed.

In addition to the orchestral items, A. Cloke sang "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia;" A. M. Kerr gave an excellently rendered cor- et solo; Mr. Mullins gave a comic song which was roundly cheered, and was followed by J. Martin, who sang "The Wee House at Home," which was much appreciated.

During the interval Mr. Thompson, the local organizer of the L.O.O.M., gave an account of the progress of the local lodge, and of the good work carried out at Mooseheart, where the children of deceased Moose are taken care of and fitted to take their places in the battle of life by being well educated and trained by the munificence of members of the order.

The second part of the programme included a song, "The Volunteer Organist," by A. Clarke; a cor- et solo by A. M. Kerr, and another irresistible comic song by Mr. Mullins, which was encored; while "Believe Me All Those Endearing Young Charmers," was rendered by J. Martin in his usual excellent style.

Mrs. White, of Cassidy, acted as accompanist.

A vote of thanks was accorded to the artists and orchestra for providing such an excellent concert, and the singing of "God Save the King" brought to a close a very pleasant evening.

NORTH COWICHAN LOSES ITS REEVE

Mr. Paitson Finds It Necessary to Withdraw

(By Times Correspondent)
A tribute to Reeve E. W. Paitson, of North Cowichan, who has resigned owing to the loss of his property qualification, is paid in the current issue of the Cowichan Leader, in part as follows:

"North Cowichan residents lose in him a Reeve who was not one of those whose careers ended with council meetings. Early and late and seven days a week the welfare of the Municipality was among his uppermost thoughts. He spared neither his person nor his purse in devotion to the task he had undertaken.

"To it he brought ripe business judgment and an alert mind. He was no speaker but his acts will long speak for him. His regime has marked the beginning of a more enlightened administration in the public affairs of North Cowichan. He may have made mistakes but his honesty of purpose and character no man ever doubted.

"Should the Council decide to elect a successor it will be the personal business of every taxpayer in North Cowichan to endeavor to secure a Reeve who will carry on the work Mr. Paitson regrettably lays down, one who will emulate his progressiveness, thoroughness and zeal."

NANAIMO NEWS

(By Times Correspondent)
Nanaimo, Feb. 16.—The regular monthly meeting of the Nanaimo Board of Trade was held last evening, and was one of the most interesting meetings held for some time. A lengthy discussion taking place on a resolution introduced by Mr. Leighton, regarding a change in the present system of assessing real property. Mr. Leighton's proposal embraced the plan of making the property owner his own assessor. After considering the proposal at length it was decided to refer the subject to a committee for amendment. The revised proposal to be again brought up for discussion at the next meeting of the board.

Associated Boards.
A communication was received from the Board of the Associated Board of Trades of British Columbia, advising the local board that the annual convention of the Associated Boards would be held at Victoria on March 29, 30 and 31, and requested the local board be fully represented and resolutions forwarded in due course.

The meeting decided to leave the appointment of Nanaimo's delegates to the hands of the president, and the drafting of the resolutions was referred to the chairman of the legislative committee.

A communication from the Board of Railway Commissioners advising the local board that an application of the Railway Association for an order amending general order No. 54, had been refused, was received and filed.

A communication was received from the B. C. Lumber and Shingle Manufacturers, Limited, enclosing a resolution protesting against the present exorbitant freight rates, and urging that the rates which were in effect prior to September, 1920, be immediately restored.

The communication was received and filed, the meeting going on record as unanimously in favor of the resolution.

The following ladies will constitute the executive committee of the St. Paul's Five Acre Guild for the ensuing year: Hon. presidents, Mrs. S. H. Hall and Mrs. J. H. Hall; first vice-president, Mrs. Harold Smith; second vice-president, Mrs. Sharpe; secretary, Mrs. T. Bennett; treasurer, Mrs. Wm. Thorne; executive, Mrs. H. Smith, Mrs. Tembey and Mrs. Hewlett.

Dr. Wilks, for some years a doctor of this city, is immediately leaving to take up practice in Vancouver, where he will take offices in the Vancouver Block. He has made arrangements with Dr. McIntyre to take over his practice, contracts, and compensation cases, which he has under attention at present.

The death occurred in this city last evening of Caroline Merritt, relict of the late Maurice Merritt, a native of Cape Breton, aged 84 years. She resided in Nanaimo for the past thirty-four years, and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. M. Robinson, of Nanaimo, and Mrs. A. Muir, of Vancouver, and three sons, Thomas, of Nanaimo, and Matthew and John, of Vancouver. Mr. Gerard, of this city, is a grandson.

Stops Pain Instantly

The simplest way to end a corn is Blue-jay. A touch stops the pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Made in two forms—a colorless, clear liquid (one drop does it) and in extra thin plasters. Use whichever form you prefer, plasters or the liquid—the action is the same. Safe, gentle. Made in a world-famed laboratory. Sold by all druggists.

Maffeo; third vice-president, Dr. J. H. Hall; secretary, W. W. Gray, W. Burnip, Dr. Dier, T. Routledge, and W. N. Wardill; manager, T. Niven; trainers, W. Pryde and A. Niven.

About twenty-five members of the Theosophical Society of this city met at the home of Mrs. J. L. Reynolds, 31 Kennedy Street, on Monday evening, during the course of which Dr. Wilks, who is leaving this city shortly, and who has in the past been a most prominent member of the above society, was presented with the handsome silver soup tureen. Following the presentation a social evening was enjoyed by all present.

The local branch of the C.W.V.A. celebrated St. Valentine's Day with a dance last evening in Young's hall, which was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed. The veterans had left no stone unturned in their efforts to provide an enjoyable evening for all present. With the assistance of the Malaspina Chapter, I.O.D.E., who provided the buffet supper, and the superintendence of patronesses Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Leighton, Mrs. Davidson and Mrs. Martin, the affair proved a huge success.

Wedding Ceremony.

(By Times Correspondent)
Duncan, Feb. 17.—A quiet wedding took place yesterday at St. Pelay, Quamichan, when Miss Elsie Margaret Paitson, daughter of Mrs. J. L. Paitson (now in England), and sister of E. W. Paitson, Reeve of the municipality of North Cowichan, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Young Bazett, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Bazett, Maple Bay. The Rev. F. L. Stephenson performed the ceremony. The bride wore her traveling costume, with long mauve coat with a handsome fur collar and a purple velvet hat. The happy couple left for Victoria and other points, where the honeymoon will be spent.

ALMOST A NATIVE.

"Are you a native of this parish?" asked the Scottish sheriff of a witness.
"Maistly, yer honor," was the reply. "I mean, were you born in this parish?"
"Na, yer honor. I wasna born in this parish. But I'm maist a native for a' that."
"You came here when you were a child, I suppose you mean?" said the sheriff.
"No, sir; I'm jist here about sax year noo."
"Then how do you come to be nearly a native of the parish?"
"Weel, ye see, when I cam' here sax year sin' I jist weighed eight stane, an' I'm seventeen stane noo, sae ye see that about nine stane o' me belongs to this parish an' the ither eight comes from Camlachie."

A Doctor brought a dyspeptic farmer a big brown pill.
"I want you to try this pill at bed-time," he said. "It's a new recipe, and if you can retain it on your stomach it ought to cure you."
The next day the doctor called again. "Did you manage to retain the pill on your stomach?" he asked eagerly.
"Well, the pill was all right so long as I kept awake," said the farmer, but every time I fell asleep it rolled off."

WHEN ANIMALS GO TO SCHOOL

Clever Tricks They Learn Unaided

Many animals learn marvellous things of their own accord which one would think would require prolonged training.

Instinct does not play so large a part in bird and animal education as many people imagine. Young birds have not so much instinct as ants, bees, or wasps, because they have the power to learn with prodigious rapidity. A case is known where a chicken did not instinctively recognize water, even when it walked through a saucerful. Only when it happened to peck its toes when it stood in the saucer did it realize the water was the very thing for which it had been looking!

Cats That Solve Puzzles.
The parents of young birds take greater pains with the education of their offspring. The fact that young woodpeckers may be quite clever at opening fir cones to get at the seeds might be hastily attributed to hereditary instinct, in reality the parents show their young ones the seeds in the cones, then partly open cones, and then let them open them. It is not long before the fledglings understand what they must do to secure their food.

A great factor in bird and animal education is experience. When the Greek eagle lifts the Greek tortoise in its talons and lets it fall from a height so that the strong carapace or shell is broken and the flesh exposed, it is making intelligent use of an expedient which it quite likely found as a result of experiment.

In the same way herring-gulls lift sea-urchins and clams in their bills and let them fall on the rocks so that the shells are broken.

An instructive case is the behavior of the song-thrush when it takes a wood-snail in its beak and hammers it against a stone—its so-called anvil. Some wood-snails were once offered to a young thrush, but the bird took no interest until one of the snails put out its head and began to move.

The bird then pecked at the snail's horns, then picked it up by the shell. No real progress was made until the sixth day, when the thrush seized the snail and beat it on the ground. The same day it picked up a shell and knocked it repeatedly against a stone, trying one shell after another. After fifteen minutes' hard work the bird posed to break open a shell and after that it was all easy.

Many mammals, such as cats and rats, learn how to manipulate puzzle boxes, and how to make their way through a Hampton Court maze—a feat beyond many human beings. Some of the puzzle boxes, with a reward of food inside, are quite difficult. The various bolts and bars have to be dealt with in a particular order, and very many mammals master the problem.

The elephant at Belle Vue Gardens in Manchester used to collect pennies from visitors. When it got a penny in its trunk it put it in the slot of an automatic machine which delivered up a biscuit. The animal selected halfpennies with digest. All this was the outcome of prolonged training.

On the other hand, the Polar bear which used to sit on a rocky peninsula of a water-filled quarry in Edinburgh Zoological Park showed what clever things an animal can learn of its own accord.

The visitors threw in buns, some of which floated on the surface of the water. It was often easy for the bear to collect half a dozen by plunging into the pool. But it had discovered a more interesting way. At the edge of the peninsula it scooped the water gently with its huge paw, and made a current which brought the buns ashore.

This (says a writer in Part 5 of "The Outline of Science") was a simple piece of behavior, but it has the smack of intelligence—of putting two and two together in a novel way.—Tit-Bits.

MANY CASES OF RHEUMATISM NOW

Says We Must Keep Feet Dry, Avoid Exposure and Eat Less Meat.

Shy off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat less meat, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of salts occasionally to keep down uric acid.

Rheumatism is caused by poisonous toxin, called uric acid, which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

The editor of an obscure newspaper in a remote part of South California found himself unable to insert his usual column of Births, Marriages, and Deaths. Thinking that some apology was needed for such an unusual circumstance he published the following in bold black type:

"We regret that, owing to pressure upon our space, several births marriages, and deaths have been inevitably postponed."

WHOLESALE FIGURES

IN QUIET STATE

Few Breaks in Prices: Fresh Car of Bananas to Arrive

Trading on wholesale row to-day opened with a quiet quotation, but featured a few breaks during the course of the day. Vegetable figures showed a tendency to paring off in price in a few branches, but the general outlook of the market is one of upward trend. Another car of bananas is due to arrive in Victoria on Sunday night and should be ready for the Monday morning trading. The quotations have been revised as follows:

AT THE END OF THE RAINBOW

By Nancibelle Hale

Another Fascinating Romance by the Author of "A Gamble in Beauty."

CHAPTER I.

Margaret Brownlow and Paul Howe were born on the same day in adjoining houses on a little street in Vinton, Ia. All their lives they had been friends, and on their twentieth birthday they swore undying devotion to each other. The next day Paul would leave for college in the East.

"It must be fine to be a man!" sighed Margaret. "To be able to go into the world and fight for fame and fortune. They had graduated from the high school in June and were both taking themselves seriously. "I just hate being a girl."

"Ah, that's silly!" consoled her. "If you weren't a girl, how could you marry me?"

"I wouldn't," she promptly answered. "I'd go along to college with you. And I'd do it rather than sit around here waiting for you to marry me."

Margaret had a way of stating facts that was staggering, even to Paul, who understood her better than any of her other friends. Perhaps it was his intense admiration for her which seemed to have always existed, that made it possible for him to see through the brambles of temperament that surrounded her. At any rate he found her out by some secret path of his own, and she was silently grateful that she could talk to him frankly.

"It would have been impossible to do so to any of the girls she knew. For a moment Paul eyed her thoughtfully. "You're an awfully funny girl, Margy," he finally said. "I guess that's why I'm so crazy about you. I wish your folks could send you to college."

"They would if I were a boy," broke in the girl resentfully. "They'd manage some way to get the money." Then with an entire change of manner, "I want to do great things, too, Paul. I seem to want to fight. That is, I don't like the idea of sitting and waiting for anything. And you're no notion how I hate to sew and fix up to look pretty."

Paul thought as he looked at the tumbled-haired gypsy wearing a plaid skirt, some heavy walking shoes, a bright red sweater and tam of the same shade, that she was the prettiest girl in the world; she was the gamiest, too, and the best. Things that were too big to say, things that rose in his throat and throbbed there, pawed him to silence. Strange new consciousness was pulsing to life.

"Oh, Margy, I wish you could go with me now. I don't want to wait four years," he said brokenly. "I don't either," she replied softly. "But four years isn't so long after all. You'll be a big, famous man, and I'll be so proud of you." No

No doubt it would have been different if Margaret had continued to live in Vinton. But during the first Winter of their separation her parents had been killed in an automobile accident and the girl had gone to New York to live with her mother's unmarried sister, "Aunt Judith," who had an apartment overlooking the Hudson. She wrote books and her friends were editors and painters and musicians. It was into this attractive new atmosphere that Margaret found herself transplanted.

However, Margaret and her aunt never settled in one spot for long. They travelled abroad extensively, went south for part of their Winters to the mountains for part of their Summers. Margaret had been left with very little money, but her aunt had sold two "bed-sets" and had inherited a small fortune from one of her suitors. He had proposed to her at regular intervals for several years, then insisted upon her releasing him after he was gone. Being free to do whatever she chose was a pleasant reminder, but she missed him more than she imagined she would.

Although she continued to have admirers (Judith Karns was the kind of woman who always would), she never took any of them seriously, which no doubt accounted for her number of men friends.

She was proud of Margaret and devoted to her. The girl in turn idolized her aunt. She imitated her ways, her ideas, and whereas in the past she had shown a decided inclination to always think for herself, now what this paragon of perfection and wisdom declared to be a fact Margaret usually accepted as such. Yet she retained a gypsy way that had always distinguished her from other girls, and in addition became a tremendously well-dressed, well-mannered, much-travelled young woman with a super-abundance of vitality and enthusiasm for associates were for the most part her aunt's friends and older than she. It made the girl a bit too sophisticated, though she never lost her sweetness.

John Baxter was among the men who appeared to enjoy the girl's company. He made and spent money freely and worked very hard at having a good time.

Members of the St. Albans Country Club had become accustomed to seeing him and Margaret Brownlow dash up to the club house in his yellow roadster, then almost immediately appear on the course and begin their game. It was typical of the girl to think and act quickly, and Baxter, although several years older, enjoying the stimulus of real youth, always did his best to keep up with her.

One day they were returning to the club house after having played thirty-six holes. Margaret was still buoyant, and Baxter was trying not to look too wilted. He introduced her to the women on the porch and left her with them while he went to freshen up a bit. Margaret never self pity in her now. It was the helpmate who spoke. It was a woman, stretching out an encouraging hand. She was crushing back her own pain in an effort to banish his distress.

"Margy, you're a sport," he muttered. He looked at her with an inarticulate, boyish impulse that wanted to help, here didn't know how. It certainly was rough on her, no matter how you figured it, for her folks to make her stay home, just as if she were sick. Al here she was, trying to be cheerful about it. Of course, she should go to college. What a wonderful man she would have had! What a wonderful girl she was! Then he shook himself together. "I've got to get along now, honey. The folks have company for dinner. I'll see you in the morning before I leave. So long."

With long, quick strides, he went down the walk, with Margaret standing on the porch, exactly where he had left her. Once he turned and tipped his hat, then he disappeared around the corner.

"How glad I'll be when to-morrow's over," breathed the girl. She was hoping she'd be able to get through that final leave-taking without crying. Never would she let Paul see her cry!

Then she slowly went into the house. She had barely time to say good-by to the next day, as he had hurried over while his mother was preparing breakfast. Both were constrained and brusque. "Well—until next Summer," he said as he kissed her a bit embarrassedly. It seemed as if her parents hadn't have stuck around "Tell me all the news, Margy, and write often. Well—so long!"

Then later, as he got into the Howe's car with his parents he waved goodby and was whisked out of sight. At first there had been fat letters from Paul. He was tremendously enthusiastic about college life, the football team, his frat, etc. Margaret covered pages after pages in reply.

Then gradually Paul wrote less frequently, and Margaret became very careful that she wrote no oftener than he, and no more pages. Yet she didn't blame herself so much as herself for the dying correspondence. There wasn't anything of interest for her to say. It was always that way with a girl. She could only tell of stupid little household duties, her new clothes, and remind a man over and over that she loved him.

Letters when he wrote, were full of vital things. She didn't know that he eagerly drank in every bit of news of her and her neighbors and "the crowd," that he loved to be told he was missed, and that the curb she had placed on her spontaneity was largely responsible for the letters on both sides becoming shorter, until the correspondence died altogether.

No doubt it would have been different if Margaret had continued to live in Vinton. But during the first Winter of their separation her parents had been killed in an automobile accident and the girl had gone to New York to live with her mother's unmarried sister, "Aunt Judith," who had an apartment overlooking the Hudson. She wrote books and her friends were editors and painters and musicians. It was into this attractive new atmosphere that Margaret found herself transplanted.

could you marry me?" Thus he proposed, quite unlike the way he might have asked any other girl to marry him. And his words made her heart beat queerly and she became very sober. She saw Paul Howe's handsome face when he said almost the exact words—saw Paul almost in contrast with this slightly corpulent, middle-aged man, bearing marks of dissipation. She hadn't thought of Paul for ages. Why should she feel this emotion—this de-found it necessary, preferring to jump into the car and keeping moving. She apparently was not much impressed, and on her way home gave him her views quite liberally. She was a lively talker, a mimic, quite a natural actress, wild and full of life as a young fox.

"Oh, wouldn't you hate to be a woman!" she burst out. "I mean the womanly kind of woman." He encouraged her expression of opinion.

"Aren't they funny—honestly, aren't they funny? Did you notice them sitting there on the piazza, like—like educated ducks, just sitting there everlastingly. And the longer they sit the dicker they get. Don't they now? Oh I'll never be like that—you see if I do. Most girls are so tame. I think they're disgusting. They don't do anything but dress and fix their hair, and talk about getting married!"

"But if you weren't a girl, how found it necessary, preferring to jump into the car and keeping moving.

She apparently was not much impressed, and on her way home gave him her views quite liberally. She was a lively talker, a mimic, quite a natural actress, wild and full of life as a young fox.

"Oh, wouldn't you hate to be a woman!" she burst out. "I mean the womanly kind of woman." He encouraged her expression of opinion.

"Aren't they funny—honestly, aren't they funny? Did you notice them sitting there on the piazza, like—like educated ducks, just sitting there everlastingly. And the longer they sit the dicker they get. Don't they now? Oh I'll never be like that—you see if I do. Most girls are so tame. I think they're disgusting. They don't do anything but dress and fix their hair, and talk about getting married!"

could you marry me?"

Thus he proposed, quite unlike the way he might have asked any other girl to marry him. And his words made her heart beat queerly and she became very sober. She saw Paul Howe's handsome face when he said almost the exact words—saw Paul almost in contrast with this slightly corpulent, middle-aged man, bearing marks of dissipation. She hadn't thought of Paul for ages. Why should she feel this emotion—this desire to fly to him? Surely she didn't love Paul now, assuming that she ever had. Theirs was puppy love. Yet she shrank from the look in Baxter's eyes.

"You will marry me, won't you, Margy?" This time she almost shuddered. Why had he used her childhood name? Yet she knew that John Baxter—people called him THE John Baxter—was worth considering. And her old life was miles and ages back of her. Also the Margaret of New York could no longer fit in with the life of plans of the other Margaret than she could become the Margaret of Vinton again. Yet all that was but five years ago.

"Why, child, you look positively miserable," exclaimed the man, and she looked up with something of her old manner. "I just got through telling you I'm not like other women. They're supposed to like proposals, and I don't think I do."

"Then I'll not propose to you again."

I'll just marry you. How about to-morrow?"

"Judith would be horrified." "Well, then to-day—now. Let's surprise her."

"If I ever marry any one, I suppose I'll have to be that way; I hate to think of being married!" "You're not in love with some other fellow?" he questioned thoughtfully. "No."

For a while there was silence. John Baxter was doing some quick thinking, as quick as was possible with his pulses beating immoderately. "You just don't like to think of being married, is that it?" He felt he had solved a puzzle. "Yes, that's it. I don't want ever to be married."

SHIP AGROUND AT EDIZ HOOK FLOATED LATER

SS. Selma City Got Afloat on Rising Tide and Proceeded to Port Angeles

Seattle, Feb. 17.—The Isthmian Line freighter Selma City, which grounded on Ediz Hook, near Port Angeles, last night, was floated on the rising tide this morning and proceeded to Port Angeles, where she will load cargo, according to word received here. The vessel suffered no damage, it was said.

At Midnight. Seattle, Feb. 17.—The 5,000-ton freighter Selma City, of the Isthmian Line, went aground on Ediz Hook, near Port Angeles, Wash., shortly after midnight, according to a radio message received by the Harbor Department here. The steamer Admiral Selley, Seattle to San Francisco, was reported to be standing by with the coastguard cutter Snohomish en route to the scene. The vessel was said to be in no immediate danger.

CARONIA GOES ON ROUTE TO HAMBURG

Canard Liner Will Make Three Round Trips to German Port

During the Spring the 20,000-ton Canard Caronia will supplement the liner Saxonia on the New York to Hamburg route, sailing on April 8, May 12, and June 17, for the German port from which it so conveniently reaches points in Germany, Denmark, Poland and middle Europe. The Caronia, one of the two most popular sister ships on the seven seas, her mate being the Carmania, is one of the largest steamships from New York to Hamburg this Spring, and has many features to attract travelers in all classes, being especially attractive for those who wish to voyage in the third class. In this class there is also ample deck space, fore and aft, both open and covered decks. Sailing from New York she will call at Halifax, Plymouth, Cherbourg and Hamburg on the voyage of April 8; on the succeeding trips she will omit the call at Halifax, as the Canard Line's new Canadian service will then be in full operation. The Saxonia makes regular sailings to Hamburg, calling at Plymouth, and making a round trip monthly.

The Caronia is now on a Mediterranean cruise, and upon her return to New York will immediately enter the Canard Line's New York-Hamburg service.

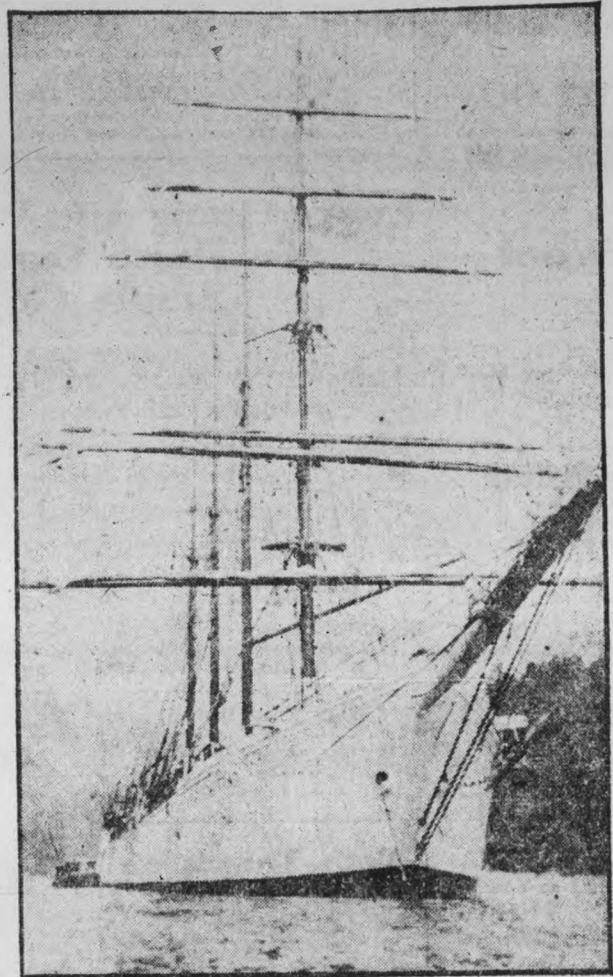

IMPORTER AT SYDNEY. SS. Canadian Importer is reported having reached Sydney, N.S.W., on Wednesday, outbound from this port via Auckland.

MRS. ANNA E. HUGHES.

Mrs. Anna E. Hughes, 22 West Elm St., Chicago, an artist who enjoys a wide and enviable reputation for skill in china painting, in relating the facts of her remarkable experience with Tanlac, says: "I haven't enjoyed such good health or felt so well in every way in years as I do now. Before I took Tanlac I was so run down that half an hour at my work would tire me completely out and I was actually so nervous and weak that at times the brush would fall from my hands and I would have to quit work for the rest of the day. Every night I would lie awake for hours, miserable and nervous. Tanlac I used in twenty days. Tanlac deserves every word of praise I can give it." Tanlac is sold in Victoria by The Owl Drug Co. and all other druggists everywhere. (Advt.)

SHIP MAKING LONG VOYAGE

THE WOODEN BARQUENTINE SIMON F. TOLMIE

after putting back from sea for repairs to her steering gear, sailed from Esquimalt on December 13 for the Orient, laden with lumber. She has not been reported through the usual shipping channels as arriving at Yokohama or any other Oriental port. Unless arrival at her destination has been over looked, the S. F. Tolmie is 65 days out. The ship is on her maiden voyage and was built at Victoria.

EIGHT MILLIONS TO RECONDITION LINER

Leviathan Contract Awarded to Newport News Shipbuilding Company

Washington, Feb. 17.—The contract for reconditioning the liner Leviathan has been formally awarded by the Shipping Board to the Newport News Shipbuilding & Drydock Company. The Boston Navy Yard, while losing out on the contract for the reconditioning of the Leviathan, will come in at the wind-up, as when the contractors finish their part the Leviathan will steam to the Boston Navy Yard, where she will go in drydock to have her hull painted. The cost of this will be $191,000, which is included in the total cost of $5,200,000.

NEWINGTON LEAVES FOR PRINCE RUPERT

Lighthouse Tender Gets Away After Completing Overhaul Here

After completing her Spring overhaul the Dominion Government lighthouse tender Newington left port last night for Prince Rupert to resume her occupation in tending buoys and beacons out of the northern British Columbia port.

In addition to having her hull cleaned and painted the Newington had a number of minor repairs carried out, including the fitting of a new propeller shaft. The vessel is now in good shape for the season's work.

The D. G. S. Estevan, operating out of this port, is now at Estevan Point unloading supplies at the West Coast point, it was announced this morning at the Department of Marine.

The lighthouse tender Berens arrived back in port this morning after recharging beacons in the Gulf of Georgia. The Berens went as far north as Union Bay.

SALVING OF DAUNTLESS.

Some progress is reported to have been made in the salvage of the tug Dauntless, wrecked in Broughton Channel, by the Vancouver Salvage Company. According to reports from the scene the tug has been moved 35 feet towards a beach. The craft is said to be 105 feet under water at high tide.

COMPANY NEGLIGENCE IS FINDING OF JURY

In Failing to Furnish Prompt Medical Aid Following Collapse of Diver Collins

Vancouver, Feb. 17.—Finding that the death of Thomas Collins, diver employed at the Ballantyne Pier, who succumbed suddenly on Wednesday morning, after completing his work at a depth of about 80 feet, was due to strangulation, the jury on Thursday afternoon added a rider to the effect that the company by whom the man was employed had been negligent by reason of failure to furnish medical aid more promptly.

This rider was due to evidence which brought out the fact that, although the collapse of the man took place shortly after 5 a.m., the authorities were not alerted until about 11 a.m., a considerable time before a physician reached the scene of the tragedy.

EXPEDITION TO EAST SIBERIA IS PLANNED

Ship Will Be Chartered to Carry Wealthy Sportsmen to Far North

Seattle, Feb. 17.—Carrying 100 persons, including fifty Atlantic Coast sportsmen, a steamship will be dispatched west May from Seattle for Siberia by the East Siberia Exploration Company of New York, it is announced by Capt. Walter H. Tinn of the Northern Shipping Company of Seattle. The expedition, it is said, is the most ambitious of the kind ever planned in connection with Siberia.

The East Siberia Exploration Company," said Captain Tinn, "was formed recently in New York by twenty-five wealthy sportsmen of the East Coast. All of them will go on the expedition and will be accompanied by twenty-five of their friends of the eastern states. The rest of the vessel's space is reserved for passengers, including prospectors and others who are interested in the transportation of their outfits on the vessel. Besides the outfits the vessel will carry some freight.

The Northern Shipping Company, formed by Captain Tinn and L. G. Horr, has been appointed general agent for the East Siberia Exploration Company. Captain Tinn, one of the pioneers of Alaska transportation in the westward and Kuskokwim River trades, Mr. Horr is an old-time Alaskan. Capt. Harry Kartheim, of Seattle, who spent twenty-six years in Alaska and Siberia, becoming well acquainted with Bering Sea waters, has been selected by Captain Tinn as master of the vessel that will carry the expedition.

Option on Vessels.

The East Siberia Exploration Company, Captain Tinn said, is a close corporation. It has an option on one of three steamships—two on this coast and one on the Atlantic Coast. Seattle is to be the base of the expedition. The chief purpose of the Atlantic Coast sportsmen in making the voyage is to hunt big game, including the mountain goat of Siberia. The ship will outfit here and will return to Elliott Bay next Fall. Captain Tinn will leave for New York next week to close the deal for a steamship.

Under the present programme the steamship will leave Seattle May 27, going direct to Petropavlovsk, where she will replenish her fuel supply. She will then continue northward along the Siberian Coast, stopping at various places en route, and by July 20 is to be in Anadyr Bay, ice conditions permitting.

Exploration Company Formed.

Captain Tinn returned to Seattle last Fall after serving for several years as marine superintendent of the Carolina Steamship Company of Charleston, S.C. While there he became acquainted with a large number of wealthy yachtsmen and big game hunters who showed a keen interest in Alaska and Siberia. What he told them of Siberia resulted in the formation of the East Siberia Exploration Company.

Besides those joining the Siberian expedition, three prominent yachtsmen have notified Captain Tinn that they plan to visit Seattle in their ocean-going yachts the coming Summer and have asked him to arrange for pilots.

ITALIAN TRAVEL.

Demonstrating that the trip from New York to Italy can be made in eight days, passengers bound to Italy travelling by the Cunard liner Aquitania, which sailed from New York February 7 for Cherbourg and Southampton, reached Modane at noon on Wednesday. A through train from Cherbourg carried the Italian passengers to their destination.

TO OPEN TENDERS FOR REPAIRS TO DAMAGED VESSEL

Tenders for the repair of the damaged steamship Bessie Dollar, it is expected, will be opened today, and the contract awarded. In the event of some close figuring, it is likely that Capt. R. L. Morton will submit the tenders to Capt. Robert Dollar, owner of the Robert Dollar Line.

TYNDAREUS CLEARS FOR ORIENTAL PORTS

The Blue Funnel liner Tyndareus sailed from the Rithet pier this morning for Yokohama, Manila and Hongkong. She was laden with a full cargo taken aboard at Vancouver and on Puget Sound. Chinese storage and mails were taken on at this port.

DRUG SMUGGLERS GIVEN MORE REIN

Immigration Forces at Seattle Reduced on Orders From Washington

Seattle, Feb. 17.—In a telegram received from the commissioner-general of immigration, Luther Weedin, United States immigration commissioner for Washington, was yesterday instructed to furlough 25 per cent of his force in this state, beginning March 1, until the end of the fiscal year on next June 30. This cut follows a previous 25 per cent permanent reduction of the force in Washington, made last July, at the beginning of the present fiscal year.

See Trouble Ahead.

While Commissioner Weedin declined to comment on the order, based on insufficient appropriation to meet salaries, federal officials familiar with the present immigration situation declared that the order will mean stagnation of immigration work. They said the doors of the United States would be virtually thrown open to narcotic peddlers, 75 per cent of whom are aliens, to hundreds of Chinese and Japanese coming here to get jobs in competition with American citizens, to Orientals smuggled into the United States from steamships, and to the reduction of the number of Washington townships. Under the ordered reduction, officials said, many so-called "one man stations" of the United States immigration force on the Canadian border will have to be temporarily abandoned. More men are declared to be needed, instead of a reduction, at many border entry ports. Commissioner Weedin has recommended a substantial increase in the personnel. Telegrams, it is declared, were sent to Washington, D. C., by Commissioner Weedin and other officials in an effort to forestall the reduction, if possible. At the present time the service has eighty-eight employees in the district of Washington, forty of whom are in Seattle, and twenty-two of these inspectors and watchmen will be laid off March 1, under the orders.

At the present time, federal officials declared, there is a money shortage situation with regard to attempts to smuggle aliens, including Orientals, into the United States than ever before, and plots to bribe officers to allow Chinese and Japanese to land under investigation. Many aliens have been smuggled ashore in recent months and are being sought.

It also became known in connection with receipt in gunnecrossed the boundary from Canada across the boundary from Canada to the United States, that many of the last six months. Some of these aliens had families of six and seven children and coming here to seek jobs in place of American citizens, officials said.

Inspection to Suffer.

Inspection of vessels carrying freight, both in Seattle and in outside ports such as Hoquiam, Everett and Bellingham will be handicapped seriously, if not in some cases abandoned in the next six months, as a result of the orders, said officials. It is from such vessels that aliens and supplies of narcotics are frequently smuggled ashore, they declared.

Saving results from the furlough of the force, in rotation, will amount to about $12,000 in salaries, it was estimated. While recent legislation limiting certain immigration work of the department in eastern districts, it has had virtually no effect here, officials declared this morning, as most of the immigrants are from the Orient.

In the attempt to stop smuggling of aliens and narcotics, the immigration service will rely largely on customs inspectors during the next four months, officials said, and customs men will aid in immigration work at the Canadian border so far as is possible. "A number of customs men have been appointed to act as special immigration inspectors."

"How would you like to hear your little one howling for bread?" asked the beggar.

The family man sighed.

"It would be heavenly," he said. "There's nothing at present but howl for chocolate."

INVENTOR GOES INTO DRYDOCK

Ship Will Go to Orient After Completing Overhaul Here

S. S. Canadian Inventor, of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine, which recently completed the homeward run from South Africa, is being drydocked at Esquimalt before setting out on her scheduled voyage to the Orient. The Canadian Inventor is posted to sail from Vancouver February 25 for Kobe and Yokohama, carrying lumber and general cargo.

The inventor takes the place in drydock of the S. S. Canadian Scottish, which after completing cleaning and painting here, shifted to Chemainus to load lumber for Australia.

The Canadian Scottish is due to clear February 23 for Auckland, Sydney and Melbourne.

SS. PINE TREE STATE SAILED TO-MORROW FROM RITHET PIERS

The Admiral Pine Tree State, Capt. M. M. Jensen, due here from Seattle about 4 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, will dock at the Rithet pier. She will clear about 6 o'clock for the Orient.

Several first class passengers and sixty Chinese steamer passengers will embark here.

Member of the Japanese and Chinese delegations to Washington are booked outward by the liner.

METS TO BID FANS GOOD-BYE.

Seattle's classy puck-chasers will say "so-long" for the season at the Arena to-night and the Aries hope to give them a nice kicking by way of farewell.

Mets Here For Last Tussle This Season

Seattle Makes Last Appearance To-night, and Aries Are Keen to Ride Them For Win—Mets Are Strutting High, But Local Boys Feel Good

Seattle's wild-eyed hockey players, who seem to have a pretty good grasp on one of the places in the play-off of the P. C. H. A. will make their last appearance this season at the Arena, provided, of course, that Victoria and Seattle do not figure as the pair in the decisive struggles for the championship.

Pete Muldon brought his hired help in this afternoon and let go the statement that the Mets are figuring strongly on the play-off coming through. Perhaps they will, for they are going rather well right now, but they're not the first team that has been hitting in unison this season and then cracked wide open like an ice-bum under a ton of dynamite. They are sitting almost in clover, now requiring but half a game to put them in the play-off. A win for them at home next Wednesday will give them the lead.

Eddie Thinks So. The Aries are not out of the going yet by a bunch of gasps. Ask Eddie Oatman. He'll tell you that we're going to get there. Eddie has got his team popped up for to-night and he's getting round-shouldered carrying around a hunch that the Aries are going to win.

With the hockey season rapidly pulling to a close, owing to the early starting of the schedule, the fans are anxious to glimpse the rest of the struggles. Seattle plays to-night and next Friday Vancouver appears in the last scheduled game of the season. Two more games and the regular Friday night outbursts of yipping, yelling and applauding will cease for another season.

Three Straight, Please. A big crowd will no doubt be on hand to give the Aries a pat on the back to help them on their final drive for a place in the play-off. A win to-night will pull them up to within a point of Vancouver and if they can succeed in winning one of their two games from the Metropolitans next week, while Seattle takes a bump from Vancouver there will be a tie for second place between the Mets and Aries. Three straight wins for Victoria would show them up to the top of the heap.

The Aries started the season with three straight wins and it is not at all impossible for them to round off the winter's work with a repetition of this memorable performance. If the Aries lose to-night their chances of getting into the play-off will be just as good as those of a condemned man has of a short current when he is strapped in an electric chair.

The Aries are determined to trip up the Mets to-night. Seattle has proved Victoria's nemesis this season. Of the five games played here to date, the Mets have picked off three, while Victoria has won one and drawn one. The Aries are ready to skate till the cows come home in their effort to knock Bernie Morris and the rest of the Seattle sharpshooters into the drink.

Not Disgraced. The Aries are not discouraged over the outcome of the Seattle game. They were not disgraced, as the score would indicate. When they got two goals down the net, they defended and rushed vigorously in an effort to equalize, believing that it was just as good to lose by one as a million, when there was the chance of breaking through and probably winning.

The back-checking of the Mets has had much to do with their success. They have been playing that game in order to pull up from the cellar, but now that they are on top they will undoubtedly play more open hockey. The teams will be:

LAWLER GETS DECISION

Tulsa, Okla., Feb. 17.—Jack Lawler, Omaha, won a referee's decision over Gene Delmont, Memphis, in a fast 12-round bout here last night. It was the third time the two junior lightweight boxers have fought here, and the first time either has won an appreciable margin. The first bout was a draw and Lawler winning a fair-line decision in the second.

OLD COUNTRY FOOTBALL

London, Feb. 17.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Soccer games played in the Old Country yesterday resulted as follows:

Northern Section.
Halifax 1, Lincoln 2.

Scottish League.
Third Lanark 2, Falkirk 2.

Arsenal defeated Cambridge University in a friendly game 4 to 2 in a rugby county championship semi-final at Gloucester.

Gloucester defeated Surrey 30 to 0.

BLONDE FLASH TO GO HUNTING GOALS

JACK BRITTON WILL TAKE ON DAVE SHADE IN BOUT TO-NIGHT

New York Feb. 17.—Jack Britton, who was defeating first-rate pugilists before Dave Shade, of California, ever heard of a boxing glove, will defend his world's welterweight title against the youngster in a fifteen-round decision match here to-night.

METS AND SONS TO MEET IN HOT GAME

Both Teams Will Fight Hard to Save Elimination in the Jackson Cup Series

Plenty of interest is being taken in to-morrow's game between the Metropolitans First and the Sons of England in the semi-final for the Jackson Cup. Both teams are ready to make a strong effort to save elimination. The game will be played at the local Athletic Park and the kick-off will be at 8 o'clock.

The Sons of England have strengthened their line-up and intend to make the Mets hustle every minute. They have signed Percy Shrimpton to play goal in place of Hetherington. Shrimpton is rated as one of the best goalies in this city and stood out in the game with Spencer's in the Wednesday League.

No Excuse to Offer. The Mets are not taking any chances as they are keen on getting into the finals with the winners of the West-C. P. R. game. They will field their best eleven and will have no excuses to offer if trimmed.

The Sons of England will line-up as follows: Shrimpton; Carmichael and Ord; Green, Tuppman and Petch; F. Kerley, Speak, Turner, Small and Rough. Players not going direct to the park will meet at club rooms not later than 2:30 p. m. Remaining sweaters, etc., will be at dressing room at park after 2:45 p. m.

Two games are down for decision in the Combination League. The old rivals Sons of Canada and Metropolitans Second have met at Central Athletic Club. These teams are both fast and play snappy football and the game should be interesting. The other game will be played at Etchemin Hill between the C. P. R. and Garrison and should be especially good. The railroaders are counting on climbing the ladder fast now. The Thistles will be idle to-morrow through the fact that the Sons of England, against whom they were drawn, will be playing in the Jackson Cup series.

Heldmann retired his contract. League is as follows:

	P.	W.	L.	D.	F.	A.	Pts.
Thistles	4	4	0	0	0	0	16
Garrison	4	3	1	0	1	0	13

HEILMANN AND LEONARD HOLD OUT ON TY COBB

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 17.—Harry Heilmann, outfielder, and Hubert (Hup) Leonard, pitcher, have refused to sign contracts calling for $10,000 and $9,000 respectively, and the Detroit Tigers have declined to meet their request for $15,000 each for the coming season. Frank J. Navin, President of the Tigers, announced last night. Heilmann retired his contract, which called for an advance of $2,500 over the salary he received last year, according to President Navin, but wrote a letter asking for the additional $5,000. Leonard, he said, returned his contract in which the figures were the same as last year.

BASEBALL REJECTED AS OFFICIAL SPORT FOR NEXT OLYMPIAD

Paris, Feb. 17.—The French committee in charge of the Olympic games for 1924, has rejected baseball as an official sport, selecting instead canoe racing to complete its programme.

It was indicated, however, that an unofficial international baseball tournament in connection with the Olympiad would be approved.

BACK TO CAR BARNS FOR THIS TOUGH GUY

New York, Feb. 17.—Pat Mulhark, motorman of highway trains, won the heavyweight pugilistic championship of all New York car barns—and then was induced to take a year as a professional.

Last night in his "coming out" party he met a subway passenger named Joe McCann, and after being knocked down six times for a count of nine in the first round, decided that his car-barn title was enough for him.

He reported off duty at the car barn to-day.

Senators and Stockers Go In Search of Titles

Two Victoria amateur hockey teams left for Vancouver on this afternoon's boat seeking British Columbia titles. The Senators, headed by George Straith, are to meet Towers to-night in the final game for the Senior Amateur Championship, and Stockers' Reliabilities will try and bring home the junior laurels. They are to battle with the Towers juniors, who won the Vancouver league.

Much interest is being taken locally in both games. The fans are figuring strongly on the Senators pulling off a win over Towers after their remarkable showing here last Monday night when they outplayed the Vancouver champions in the first two periods and then held them even in the last but were unfortunate in losing by 3-1.

They've a Chance. The two goals lead if they are to win the championship. Towers are determined to maintain the advantage and have practically bought tickets to go to Alberta and play the champions there for the right to represent the Far West in the Allan Cup series. But the old poet once remarked, "There's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip," and so Senators may yet be crowned kings.

The Senators may start the old forward line that made them such a sensation early in the season. Harry Smith will be on right, Delid in centre and Leo Doyd on left wing. This makes a great goal-getting combination. Ross Miller will then be used with Hap Murray in subbing. Doyd has the best shot of any amateur in town but he has only recently recovered from a serious illness and is not strong enough to make good both ways. The Senators feel though that with a good left-handed shot on the ice they will make Towers break up their defensive tactics.

The game will no doubt be one of the hottest played in B. C.'s hockey history. Both teams are confident and determined. Towers are the best situated, playing on their own ice with a two-goal lead in their hip pocket. They will no doubt make sure of their victory and let the Stockers pound away.

Hap Murray, the hard-skating forward of the Senators, is greatly worshipping Towers. Hap is a vigorous back-checker and can skate all night. He can pot too and while he is on the ice Towers realize that they will have to keep their eyes on him.

Weismuller Breaks Kahanamoku's Record For Fifty-Yard Sprint

Detroit, Feb. 17.—Four world's records were broken and one was equalled in the Central A. A. U. and national championship swimming meet held at the Y. M. C. A. here last night. The new marks were hung up by John Weismuller, Robert Skelton and Miss Evelyn Bauer of the Illinois Athletic Club, Chicago, and Miss Andre, of the Detroit Athletic Club.

Weismuller swam the 50-yard men's senior free style in 23 1-5 seconds, one-fifth of a second lower than the record held by Duke Kahanamoku and equalled the mark of Ted Cunn, in the 220-yard free style event, his time being 2:19 4-5.

Miss Bauer made her new mark in the Central A. A. U. 50-yard back stroke. Her time, 25 1-5 seconds, beats the former record by 2-5 seconds.

Skelton lowered the mark for the 440-yard breast stroke by 9 2-5 seconds, covering the distance in 6:28 1-5.

VANCOUVER IS AFTER ANOTHER GOLF COURSE

Vancouver, Feb. 17.—Golf enthusiasts are striving to incorporate a club to take up the Canadian Pacific Railway offer of the use of 120 acres on the Southeastern slope of Little Mountain, according to Newton J. Ker, the company's land agent here.

The Canadian Pacific Railway has offered this area for use as a golf course for ten years. The offer was first made to the three municipalities interested, Vancouver, Point Grey and South Vancouver, the only stipulation being tax exemption of the period being stated.

The offer stands good also for a club, if one should be organized, and Mr. Ker was yesterday advised that efforts for the formation of a club to take up the proposal were being made.

BENNY LEONARD WILL MEET JOHNNY CLINTON

Boston, Feb. 17.—Benny Leonard, lightweight boxing champion, will meet Johnny Clinton, New England lightweight champion, in a 10-round exhibition bout at the "Ritz" charity tournament to be conducted here on March 20, it was announced to-night.

Nunes Plants K. O. El Paso, Tex., Feb. 17.—Danny Nunes, of Sacramento, Calif., knocked out Joe Matanga, of New Orleans last night in the sixth round of a scheduled 12-round bout. The men met at 127 pounds.

FRENCH CAN'T FIND EQUIVALENT FOR K.O.

Froggies Campaigning to Eliminate All English Words From Their Sports

Paris, Feb. 17.—A campaign has been started by the leading sporting press of France for the avoidance of English words in sport where a French equivalent is available. Some equivalents have even been coined lately.

Boxers who have delighted in prefixing their names with English terms, such as "Batling" Siki and "Knockout" Marchand will become Siki le "Batailleur" and Marchand "l'Assommeur."

Some of the English words which it is desired to avoid and their equivalent in French are:

Referee, arbitre; trainer, entraineur; team, equipe; race, course; deuce (in tennis), egalite; hook, crochet; seconds, soigneurs; off-side, horsjeu; goals, buts; forward, avant; halfback, demi; time, temps. The Auto has been unable to find a term for "knockout," although it is a situation which is quite frequent in French rings.

Bays Can Win Championship by Defeating Wanderers To-morrow Afternoon—If They Lose Play-off May Be Necessary—Old Boys Meet Naval College

There is a possibility that the rugby championship of Victoria may be decided to-morrow afternoon. If the Bays succeed in defeating the Wanderers they will retain possession of the Barnard Cup, should, however, the Bays be defeated the Wanderers will jump to the front and it will then be necessary for last year's champions to defeat the Old Boys in the last game of the schedule in order to draw even with the Wanderers. This, then, would necessitate a play-off.

Both clubs are taking to-morrow's battle seriously. It will be staged at Oak Bay park and will undoubtedly attract a large crowd of spectators.

Bays Lose Halves. The Bays will not be at full strength owing to the fact that they have lost their half-backs Anderson and Kerr and Johnson who last Saturday had to fill Webster's place at wing three-quarter, may not be able to take his place at half-back owing to a nasty kick he received in the foot.

The Bays are working on a plan to strengthen the half-backs and it is possible that Angie McInnes may move up from the three-quarter line. "Cotton" Brynjolfson and Howard Watson performed at half-back last Saturday, and while they played steadily and hard they were not able to snap the ball to the three-quarters.

The Wanderers have their team at top strength. They have a splendid back, which includes five men who have figured on the rep. team. They will be a hard crew to stop.

Always Well Played. The games between the Wanderers and Bays are always keenly contested and it is expected that Saturday's will be no exception to the rule. The Wanderers will line up as follows:

Full back, Goodacre; three-quarters, Whitshire, Walls, MacNaught, Honeychurch; half-backs, Parker and McCulloch; forwards, Pendray, Robinson, Acland, Blith, Herman, McCallum, of Ottawa, Chief serves, Allen, Colman and Woodhouse.

Old Boys vs. Sailors. A second game in the Senior Rugby League between the Old Boys and Naval College, these teams are well matched in speed and weight and the game should be very fast. The first time these teams met the Old Boys won by 4-3, but in the last meeting the Cadets swamped the Collegians by 30-0. The Old Boys are anxious to avenge this last defeat.

Both games will start at 2:45 o'clock.

BASKETBALL TEAM HAS FUNNY TIMES

Salt Spring Team Bound For Cobble Hill, Shipwrecked: Missed Car; Broke One

Cobble Hill, Feb. 17.—Two close basketball games were played in the Community Hall on Wednesday evening. The first match between the Shawigan Juniors and the Cobble Hill Boy Scouts resulted in favor of the former. The score being 17-20.

The line-up: Shawigan—Theo. Elford, centre; Leonard Neff, forward; Harold Neff, forward; Walter Yates, guard; Ruel Yates, guard; Walter Elford, spare.

Cobble Hill—T. Keene, centre; C. Meredith, forward; Windham Bird, forward; J. Bird, guard; C. Bonner, guard.

Shawigan played with lots of vim. This being the first match played by the Scouts they were slow. They were also handicapped by one of their players being on the sick list.

The senior game was a little late owing to some unforeseen difficulties which the Salt Spring team had in being unable to make a landing at the cable station, they had to go up stream to the Mill Bay Creek, thus missing the car sent to meet them. They started in the rain for Cobble Hill and got a lift in a car which stalled outside Mr. Locks. The team arrived very cheerful and put up a good game in spite of their mishaps and won by 18-14.

The line-ups were: Salt Spring—W. Douglas, centre; J. Hamilton, forward; L. Peters, for-

FAMOUS INDIANS ON CON JONES' TWELVE

"Big Six" Jocks and John White to Make Tour With Lacrosse Team

Montreal, Feb. 17.—The general details of Con Jones' Indian lacrosse enterprise from Coast to Coast are now well known, but there are one or two particulars which have not been generally given out. One of these is that the Caughnawaga team, which is expected to play at the Chief Constable of Caughnawaga, "Big Six" Jocks. He is a young man, whose father for years was a well-known lawyer, probably the only Indian lawyer in this vicinity, although Indian doctors are not by any means uncommon.

Jocks is really in the service of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. He will no doubt be permitted a furlough to take the trip to the Coast and back, which it is expected will take about five weeks. He has two years' vacation coming to him and the extra weeks or so will probably be granted.

W. E. Foran, of Ottawa, Chief Civil Service Commissioner and one of the Trustees of the Stanley Cup, is deeply interested in Mr. Jones' enterprise.

Old Timer to Come Back. Another very well known figure in Indian lacrosse which will be on the Iroquois team, is tall John White, for years one of the most celebrated Indian players on a white team known. He is a Cornish Island Indian and used to play for the Cornwall team.

He was employed for years in Joe Lady's lacrosse stick factory in Cornwall, and though he is old for an athlete and has given up the game, experts say that he will surprise lovers of lacrosse in his comeback.

Changes Suggested in Amateur Hockey Rules; Want Games Split Into Two Thirty-Minute Periods

Montreal, Feb. 17.—Officers of the Manitoba Hockey Association, affiliated with the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, have forwarded to the secretary of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association a number of suggested amendments to the playing rules of the game. They are as follows:

"That a committee be appointed to revise the playing rules of amateur hockey."

"That the rules be changed to read that the teams shall play two periods of 30 minutes each with a rest of 10 minutes between the periods, instead of playing three periods of 20 minutes each."

"To eliminate the line that forms the goalkeeper's territory and that the goalkeeper be allowed to stop the puck any way he sees fit. That no player other than the goalkeeper shall be allowed to go down on his knees in the goal."

P. E. Beasley was referee for both games.

The senior game proved fast. After half time it was a long time before a score was made. This was made by Cobble Hill, and would have resulted in a tie, only the Cobble Hill man threw the ball into the wrong basket thereby losing three points.

U. OF W HOCKEY TEAM DEFEATED 'VARSITY

B. C. Students Lost to Seattle Collegians by 3-2 in Exciting Overtime Game

Seattle, Feb. 17.—University of Washington defeated University of British Columbia in an exhibition hockey game here last night, which went ten minutes overtime.

The British Columbian displayed far better teamwork than the winners, and would undoubtedly have handed the locals an awful drubbing if it was not for Mackenzie's stellar playing.

The visitors scored six minutes after the opening of play in the first period. They counted again after ten minutes of play in the second period.

Mackenzie made Washington's first score unassisted just 25 seconds later. Mackenzie scored again in the third period.

Scored in Last Seconds. After a consultation between the coaches and officials, it was decided that two overtime periods of five minutes each would be played. Just a half-minute before the close of the final period, Mackenzie broke through the British Columbia defence and scored the winning goal.

The two teams are slated to meet in the return game at Vancouver on Washington's birthday.

Last night's victory was Washington's first victory over the northern collegians on the ice since the two-game home-and-home series was introduced.

The line-up: U. of W.—Little, Mackenzie, Pincoff, Wong, Allen, Quinlivan.

U. of B. C.—Broadfoot, Christie, Holverson, Stillwell, McPherson, Turner.

Summary: First period—1, U. of B. C. Christie, 6:09.

Second period—2, U. of B. C. McPherson, from Stillwell, 1:17; 3, U. of W. Mackenzie, 25.

Third period—4, Mackenzie, (U. of W.), 5:10.

Second overtime period—No score.

Third overtime period—5, U. of W. Mackenzie, 4:32.

ROYAL VICTORIA

"Stardust," starring Hope Hampton, will be the first National attraction at the Royal Victoria Theatre again to-day.

It is based on Fanny Hurst's famous novel of the same name, the scenario having been prepared by Anthony Paul Kelly. The production was directed by Robert Henley, who has many screen successes to his credit, and James Rennie appears opposite Miss Hampton.

The cast also includes such well known players as Noel Tearle, who distinguished himself in "Over the Hill"; Vivian Ogden, who will be remembered for her characterization in "Way Down East"; Charles Musset, Tom McGuire, Mary Foy, Edna Ross, Ashley Buck, George Humbert, Gladys Wilson and Charles Wellsley. The production was many months in the making and was filmed on an elaborate scale. It is declared to be the most ambitious effort Miss Hampton has yet made since launching on her screen career.

"Stardust" is an intensely dramatic story of a young girl whose love for music lures her away from the narrow-mindedness of her own home circle to the big city, where she finds both tragedy and romance. In addition to good comedy and weekly, Miss Ivy Holt, the well-known contralto, will sing at both afternoon and evening performances. The two songs selected are: "Until" and "Bells of St. Mary."

DOMINION

The new Paramount picture, "Three Live Ghosts," featured Anna Q. Nilsson and Norman Kerry, is pleasing large audiences at the Dominion Theatre this week. It is a delightful picture production by George Fitzmaurice. The various roles are artistically portrayed.

CAPITOL

The problem of accuracy in the matter of costumes as well as all other features of a motion picture is one which entails much labor on the part of all concerned. Hence, the research department of a film producing company generally has its work cut out for it if there is a period scene or some unusual angle, as in "The Lane That Has No Turning," in which Agnes Ayres will make her debut as a Paramount star at the Capitol Theatre this week. The proper attire of Theodore Kosloff, who plays a leading role, that of a young Frenchman who is filled with enthusiasm for his own traditions of his race, was a case in point.

Keep you fit

He couldn't dress in the costume of the old nobility for the play is modern. Yet how else could he indicate his predilection for such things. After much consultation, a compromise was effected. A modern sack suit of gray, a velvet smoking jacket and a very ornate fancy vest of brocade made from rare old material in nearly exact replicas of a vest of many generations back—this gave the desired touch of quaintness.

Miss Ayres wears some exquisite models and in an operatic scene appears garbed as Marguerite in the opera "Faust."

COLUMBIA

A story developed with all the great skill of an O. Henry and written by the star of the drama for the star himself makes "The Swamp," with Sessue Hayakawa in the leading role, one of the really great productions of the year. It will be shown at the Columbia Theatre this week.

Probably for the first time in his career, Hayakawa plays many scenes with a light touch of comedy so wholesome that it cannot but captivate beholders. There is many a laugh in the early scenes of the story, in which Hayakawa is seen as a simple Chinese boy earning his living as a vegetable peddler in the tenement district of New York. It is from this squalid section that the story derives its name—"The Swamp." A lonely youth, stoical like those of his race, his only comfort is his horse. To him he reveals his innermost secrets and longings. The big moment comes when the peddler is charged to save his four-footed friend to help a poor woman and her little boy.

A delightful touch of romance adds interest to the story. Bessie Love is seen as the deserted mother of a little boy whose friendship for the Chinese peddler is one of the highlights of the story.

When your liver becomes sluggish and inactive your whole health suffers. The tongue coated, the breath bad, the stomach foul and sick, and bilious spots occur on account of the liver failing to do its duty which is so essential to promote the movement of the bowels, and the bile gets into the blood, instead of passing out through the usual channel.

The only way to keep the liver active and working properly, and thus get rid of the nasty bilious attacks, is to keep the bowels regular by using

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS

They are purely vegetable, small and easy to take, work smoothly and gently, and there is nothing of the griping, weakening and sickening effects of the old-fashioned purgatives.

Mr. John S. Caron, Donavan, Sask., writes: "I have been suffering from liver and had severe bilious attacks. A friend advised me to try Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills so I took two pills and I have had no more attacks."

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS

are 25c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. (Adv.)

"Leave well enough alone" is the moral of "The Woman and the Hen" series.

RE-ESTABLISHMENT OF ARMY SERVICE CORPS UNIT HERE

No. 21 Company, Canadian Army Service Corps, has been re-established here and recruiting for the unit will commence immediately, it was announced to-day. Major J. F. C. Hyndman, the well-known Oriental importer, who will command the company, will welcome recruits with previous experience in the work of the Army Service Corps overseas. A meeting of officers and men of the company will be held in the Armory on Monday evening in the Canadian Service Corps quarters. Men who wish to join the unit may get in touch with Major Hyndman at his offices, 705 Belmont House.

"FOUR HORSEMEN OF THE APOCALYPSE" TO SHOW AT CAPITOL

The long-awaited Rex Ingram production of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" will come to the Capitol Theatre, beginning February 27. This is the picture that cost Metro $1,000,000 to make, and, from all accounts, the $1,000,000 was well spent, as critics agree that all other efforts at production on a grand scale have been surpassed, and record runs have been made in New York, Chicago, Boston, Pittsburgh, Detroit, Los Angeles and other cities where the picture has been previously shown.

Fifty principals and 2,500 extras were engaged in the filming of the photodrama, an entire French village, and an elaborate chateau were erected to be destroyed under the artillery bombardment of the German invaders, and more than 125,000 tons of masonry, steel, lumber and other materials were used in creating backgrounds that are said to reproduce with absolute fidelity the shifting panorama of the story.

The appeal of the story itself has already been proved through the success of the novel by Vicente Blasco Ibañez, upon which the photodrama is founded. Its sale throughout the world runs into the millions, but millions more will probably have been revealed to them the first time through the medium of the screen production. This production is reported to have followed faithfully the epic tale of human passion against the background of the Great War, as related by Ibañez.

"DUMBELLS" WILL BE HERE THREE NIGHTS SHORTLY

Canada's premiere attraction, the "Dumbells," will be the offering at the Royal Victoria Theatre for three nights commencing Monday February 27, when they will present for the first time in the city their original overseas musical comedy revue, "Biff, Bing, Bang."

This popular vehicle has served the third division for the past five years, with a fair balance in the musical numbers from year to year, but an end must come to all good things, and the local engagement will mark the farewell of "Biff, Bing, Bang," while the members of the company will remain intact for their next production and tour.

A BUTTERFLY FROM JAPAN

The engagement of Mme. Tanaka Miura, the Japanese soprano, as a guest artist with the San Carlo Opera Company, adds to that splendid orchestra one of the most picturesque and interesting artists on the operatic stage to-day.

Mme. Miura was the first Japanese singer to take her place on our opera stage, and her interpretation of the hapless bride in Puccini's opera, "Madama Butterfly," ranks among the most celebrated characterizations on the lyric stage.

Before she attained fame as an opera singer Mme. Miura studied under European singing masters at the Imperial Theatre of Tokyo, appearing in the role of the beautiful "Cavalleria Rusticana." So great was her success that she traveled to European countries studying under the best teachers. In Italy she learned the secrets of bel canto and to-day her critics acclaim her not only because she is a real butterfly in appearance and action, but because she has a beautiful voice and understands how to use it. Mme. Miura made her Western debut as Madame Butterfly in London, at Covent Garden, where she created a veritable sensation. Max Rabinoff went to London especially to engage her for the Boston National Opera Company and she repeated in this country the success she had had in England. In subsequent seasons she appeared with the Chicago Opera Company, again scoring emphatically in Madame Butterfly and Mme. Chrysantheme, another opera presented especially as a vehicle for this charming artist.

Mme. Miura arrived only recently from Europe and was immediately engaged by Impresario Fortune Gallo for the Western tour of the San Carlo Company. She will be presented as Madame Butterfly when the San Carlo forces appear in this city, on Monday, February 27.

Neal Burns is to be featured in "A Rambling Romeo," the latest Christie comedy. Scott Sidney is directing.

St. Charles-more than a name!

Recipes worth saving

BACON FRAZE:—Beat four eggs into batter with one-fourth teaspoonful St. Charles Milk, an equal quantity of water, one teaspoonful flour; dip slices of bacon in this and fry. Then lay bacon in frying pan, pour remaining batter over it. When both sides are well browned lay on heated dish and serve at once.

SEND FOR THE BORDEN COOK-BOOK! IT'S FREE!

At its best in cooking recipes

Most everybody knows that milk branded with the name St. Charles has "the cream left in", that it contains a minimum of 7.8 per cent. butter fat, that it is properly sterilized, that it is always of the highest pure rich quality, and always fresh.

It is the finest milk obtainable!

But St. Charles stands for more than a name. It is your unqualified guarantee of complete satisfaction, it is your assurance that your purchase will never disappoint, it removes "doubt" from your milk buying.

Why be satisfied with any other milk but St. Charles—particularly as it costs no more?

Use it for cooking and table use. St. Charles answers every milk purpose—better—and more economically. "A size for every need." Order a supply from your grocer to-day!

COTTAGE GARDENERS ELECT NEW OFFICERS

After going on record as being strongly in favor of daylight saving, the Ward Seven Sanich Cottage Gardeners' Association at its annual meeting last night elected the following officers: President, W. Tomes; vice-president, T. Knight; secretary, Mrs. M. Stewart; executive committee, Mesdames Hobbs, Hale, Howcroft, Stewart and Street, and Messrs. Callow, Vallance and Britton. R. H. Huddleston and Major J. P. Hibben were elected honorary presidents as a recognition of their past services.

A report by the retiring president,

J. P. Hibben, showed successful year's work.

A report by Secretary-Treasurer Mrs. M. Stewart revealed the fact that the funds were carefully handled with a fair balance in hand.

The Daylight Saving resolution was as follows: "Whereas the objects of this Association are beneficially affected by the Daylight Saving schedule and whereas the City of Victoria intends to adopt the same; Therefore be it resolved that this meeting of Cottage Gardeners in Ward VII request Councilor Dooley to represent their views to the Sanich Council and the end that this Ward may be found in agreement with the City Council in this matter."

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS TO CELEBRATE ORDER'S ANNIVERSARY THURSDAY

The Dramatic Order, Knights of Khorassan, will hold a Progressive Whist Drive on Monday next, at 8.30 p.m., in the Knights of Pythias Hall, North Park Street. There will be six good scrip prizes given away and all arrangements have been made for a large gathering. This Order is connected with the Knights of Pythias. On Thursday next the Knights of Pythias will hold their celebration of the 50th anniversary of the Order. There will be the usual ritualistic ceremony to be gone through, and the Third Rank will be conferred on a large class of candidates. The membership drive which is now in vogue is meeting with good success.

On March 17 the Knights of Pythias have decided to hold a grand Masquerade ball in the K. of P. Hall. There will be ten prizes for the best costumes, comic and otherwise. A good tombola prize will be given. Tickets can now be obtained from the Committee and the Hall.

COMING HERE WITH SAN CARLO COMPANY

BIANCA SAROVA, Soprano.

Many a man on the verge of proposing hesitates because he knows beforehand that the girl will say yes.

"Sergeant," said the officer, "I was looking last evening for some records concerning the religious services held every Sunday morning, but could not find them in the files. Where are they?"

answered the sergeant in charge of the files, "Why under 'H'?"

"Because they begin at half-past nine, sir,"—Tilt-Bits.

SUBMIT FORMULA TO YOUR DOCTOR

There's No Substitute For Grip-Fix; It Relieves and Checks Colds

Ask your family physician what he recommends for a cold. He will tell you that the most doctors use the same standard formula that serves to reduce fever and the inflammation that goes with this disagreeable ailment. He will perhaps tell you that this formula contains all or some of the following drugs: Phenacetin, Quinine, Salol, Caffein Citrate, Cascara and Camphor Monobromate. Then show him a box of Grip-Fix capsules with the formula printed on the label. Ask him what he thinks of it. He will tell you that Grip-Fix is a reliable, honest remedy and in ordinary cases should knock a cold in one night. That's what your own doctor will tell you. Ask him and see.

Grip-Fix is prepared from the pre-proportioning of a seasoned medical practitioner. It has been working wonders in the treatment of colds for years. No one needs to have a cold long. Just walk into any drug store, ask for "Grip-Fix" and you can say good-bye to your cold. Grip-Fix sells at 35 cents a box. On sale at all drug stores. Vancouver Drug Co., Ltd., special agents. ### SPECIAL BENEFIT AT G.W.V.A. BAND CONCERT

On Sunday evening next there will be a special benefit evening at the sixteenth Winter concert given by the G. W. V. A. band at the Capitol. There is prepared an unusually delightful programme in which will be found quartettes and duets, besides many favorite solos. The assisting artists for this special occasion are Eva Hart, Mrs. Robert Baird, Mr. Gilliam and F. Maris Hale, all of whom are especially well known in the Victoria Dramatic Society in musical productions.

Up to the present these concerts have been the means of giving joy and delight to over ten thousand people, and as a tribute to and appreciation of the efforts of both the

CIVIL SERVANTS TO BE RETIRED

Those Over Sixty-five to Be Superannuated

Process of Judging Them to Start Next Month

Thirty-three Provincial civil servants who have reached the age of sixty-five years will likely be superannuated soon under the provisions of the Superannuation Act. The first retirements are due to take place on March 31.

Regulations dealing with the retirement of civil servants have been drawn up by the Government and made public. The retirements will be dealt with by a committee consisting of the Premier, the Provincial Secretary, the Minister of the Department in which the civil servant is employed and Civil Service Commissioner MacInnes as secretary.

Those retired will be granted a superannuation allowance based first upon the civil servant's share of the superannuation fund he has contributed to, under the plan made effective on April 1, 1921, and, secondly, where he served before that date, he will be granted as many fiftieths of his average salary between April 1, 1921, and March 31, 1921, as ten years period—as he has rendered years of service before April 1, 1921.

Provision is made so that in some cases, services of men over superannuation age may be retained.

The new regulations are:

1. There shall be a Committee composed of the Premier, the Provincial Secretary, and the Minister of the Department in which the civil servant is employed, whose case is to be dealt with by the Committee. The Civil Service Commissioner shall act as secretary of this Committee.

2. Within three months prior to the date on which a civil servant shall attain the age of sixty-four years and six months, the Civil Service Commissioner shall report his case to the Committee.
3. If, in the opinion of the Committee, it is in the public interest that the civil servant continue in the service after he attain the age of sixty-four years, the Committee shall determine the age at which the civil servant shall retire. The Civil Service Commissioner shall, thereupon, advise the civil servant of the finding of the Committee.

4. If the Committee does not, prior to the civil servant attaining the age of sixty-four years, nine months, determine that it is in the public interest that he continue in the service after he attain the age of sixty-four years, the Civil Service Commissioner shall so advise the civil servant, and the civil servant shall be retired from the service at the end of the month in which he attains the age of sixty-five years.

5. In the case of a civil servant whose age for retirement has been fixed at an age greater than sixty-five years, within the ninth, eighth, or seventh months prior to the date on which the civil servant shall attain the age fixed for retirement, the Civil Service Commissioner shall report his case to the Committee.

6. If in the opinion of the Committee it is in the public interest that the civil servant should continue in the service after he attain the age previously fixed for retirement, the Committee shall determine a later age at which the civil servant shall retire. The Civil Service Commissioner shall, thereupon, advise the civil servant of the finding of the Committee.

7. If the Committee does not, prior to the civil servant attaining within three months of the age fixed for his retirement, determine that it is in the public interest that the civil servant continue in the service after he attain the age fixed for retirement, the Civil Service Commissioner shall so advise the civil servant, and the civil servant shall be retired from the service at the end of the month in which he attains the age fixed for retirement.

8. Any civil servant shall be entitled to retire from the service and apply for superannuation at any time after he attains the age of sixty-five years.

9. In the case of a civil servant who is over the age of sixty-four years, six months, at the date of the making of these regulations, the Civil Service Commissioner shall submit a report to the Committee. If, in the opinion of the Committee, it is in the public interest that the civil servant continue in the service after March 31, 1922, the Committee shall determine a later date of retirement. The Civil Service Commissioner shall, thereupon, advise the civil servant of the finding of the Committee. If the Committee does not, prior to February 28, 1922, determine that it is in the public interest that the civil servant continue in the service after March 31, 1922, the Civil Service Commissioner shall so advise the civil servant, and the civil servant shall be retired from the service on March 31, 1922.

A schoolmaster sent a note home to father, and to make sure that it had been read, and asked for its return to him, signed.

The note's concluding sentence ran: "The boy is a good worker, but talks too much," and the teacher was astonished to read the parent's marginal comment: "You should hear his mother."—Tit-Bits.

Anaemia

Thin, watery blood is no more nourishing than thin, watery milk—skim milk.

But you can soon enrich thin blood, overcome the anaemic condition and build up the whole system by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mrs. F. C. Simmons, 42 Curtis St., Brantford, Ont., writes:

"For about eight years I suffered from anaemia. My circulation was poor, my gums and lips were pale and my hands and feet were always cold. I was nervous and unable to sleep well. I had frequent headaches, seemed restless and easily worried or irritated. There was a buzzing sound in my ears. Indigestion was also one of my complaints, and I often was attacked by weak spells. I went to a doctor, who told me I was anaemic, but as I did not get any better I decided to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after the first box I felt brighter and my headaches completely disappeared. I continued using the Nerve Food for quite a while. I am quite well now, and cheerfully and gratefully recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to people suffering as I did before I used this splendid medicine."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

POOR READING SAPS

CHILD'S MENTALITY, DR. WISE DECLARES

Bad literature, insidious trash which preys upon the minds of the young and impressionable causes the undoing of many a boy and girl. Dr. Sara E. Wise, eminent doctor of San Francisco told the students of the Victoria High School yesterday. Lack of concentrated study and good reading tells upon the growing child, she said, and has the effect of dulling his powers of concentration.

She declared that about one-third of the people of the United States were either feeble-minded or insane, and in many cases this was the result of liquor addiction on the part of parents.

NIGHT COUGHS

Terribly wearing on the system is the cough that comes at night and prevents sleep.

The constant coughing keeps the lungs and bronchial tubes in such an irritated and inflamed condition that they get no chance to heal.

You will find in DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP a remedy without an equal, for soothing the lungs, loosening the phlegm, strengthening the breathing organs and fortifying them against serious pulmonary disease.

Mrs. John McKerney, Lower Montague, P. E. I., writes: "About three years ago I caught a very bad cold accompanied with a sore throat and hoarseness, and was so hoarse you could hardly hear me speak. I could get no rest at night with the terrible annoying, hacking cough. I tried several remedies, but they did me no good. Finally I saw Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup advertised; got a bottle, and at once it gave me relief, and after using four my cough had all gone. Now I always keep 'Dr. Wood's' in the house and shall recommend your wonderful remedy to others."

Price, 35c. and 60c. a bottle at all dealers. Put up only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. (Advt.)

ADEQUATE SUPPLY OF GOATS' MILK SOON AVAILABLE

The regular monthly meeting of the local B. C. Goat Breeders will be held in the Y. M. C. A. on Monday next at 8 o'clock.

Goat breeders will be interested to hear that T. G. Marcham, of Mount Toimie, has just imported from Mr. Eggers, Woodville, Wash., the pure bred doe "Encaria Allette," sired by Swiss Yodler out of El Chivarr's Allette and tracing back to the best milk strains in the breed. This young doe shows remarkably good udder development, and looks like being a heavy milkster.

Mr. Davis reports good results from his Saanen buck Supreme Independence. So far, four does bred to him, which have kidded have given all doe kids.

After keen competition, Mr. Unwin has bought the fine grade Saanen yearling, "Arbutus Joy," from Mrs. Harrison. This is the doe which showed up so well at Victoria Fair, defeating the winner at Vancouver and New Westminster shows.

Mrs. Bradley Dyne, Duncan, is importing the Saanen doe, "Harvest Echo," from California.

W. H. Mahon, of Duncan, has a grade Toggenburg doe, which at its first kidding last March gave almost a gallon of milk a day, the actual weight being 9 pounds 5 ounces, and is looking forward to making a record this year.

This is an interesting time of the year for goat breeders, who are very busy either preparing for the arrival of kids or looking after those which have already arrived, and people who have been waiting for goat's milk will soon be able to obtain a plentiful supply.

ANGLICAN SYNOD CONCLUDES SESSION

Report on Building Fund Project; Other Matters

The Anglican Synod of Columbia brought its sessions to a close last night after passing a number of resolutions dealing with important church matters. The Synod agreed that the policy of facing difficulties in an attitude of simplicity and faith was the correct one and emphasis was laid on the fact that if labor and capital would get together in the proper spirit the problems of unemployment could be alleviated to a great extent.

The Church Building scheme was reported upon yesterday afternoon by the Dean of Columbia. The committee is of the opinion that the time has arrived for the erection of the first building adequately to meet the requirements of the Cathedral parish and provide a synod hall and offices for the Bishop. The first building will also provide facilities for the religious education of the young. The Cathedral parish is pledged to bear five-sixths of the total cost if the diocese will furnish the balance.

Rev. Alan Green, missionary at Quathlambi Cove reported on the Columbia Coast Mission work. Sixteen small settlements and a number of logging and other camps are served and a total of 4,480 miles had been covered by the missionary in order to hold services.

Considerable argument was heard against the growing practice of holding marriages in private places in preference to the church. It was claimed that the sacredness of the marriage ceremony would be observed to a greater extent if held in the church.

At last night's session the synod rose while Archdeacon Sweet read the memorial of the members who had passed away since the last gathering. Tribute was again paid to the memory of the late Archdeacon Collison and the late Rev. C. R. Little.

Rev. William Stevenson, of Emmanuel Baptist Church, addressed the Synod on the Save the Children Campaign of the Russian Famine Relief work. H. T. Ravenhill, chairman of the Social Hygiene Council of Victoria and Rev. Mr. Simpson, Field Secretary for Sunday School work in the Anglican Churches addressed the gathering.

A testimonial and gift were presented to Rev. A. W. Corker, retiring principal of the Indian school at Alert Bay. Mr. Corker spent twenty-eight years in this work, and he gave an interesting review of his experience.

Resolutions of appreciation of the work of the Bishop of Columbia and officers of the diocese were passed.

Ward Four—First Thursday.

Ward Five—First Wednesday.

The central executive committee will meet on the first Monday in March.

A pretty girl lost her glove. The finder was an old bachelor named Page, and he returned it to her with this note:

"If from your glove you take the letter 'G,'

That glove is love, and that I have for you."

To this the girl replied:

"If from your name you take the letter 'P,'

Then Page is ago, and that won't do for me."

Keep Step With Your Market

Nine million Canadians must be fed, clothed and housed three hundred and sixty-five days in the year. There is no chance of the country going cold, naked or hungry whilst wages and profits are backed up by an average savings bank deposit of $200 and an average bond holding of $250, and while there are 100 DAILY NEWSPAPERS TO TELL THEM WHEN AND WHERE TO BUY THEIR NEEDS AND THEIR DESIRES.

Consider the rural population—with millions of dollars rolling in from the crop harvest. Will this class deny itself the necessities and luxuries you have to sell?

62,062 Immigrants Entered Canada During the First Six Months of 1921

Those from the United States alone brought $8,755,203 in cash and effects. The other fifty per cent., mainly British-born, have corresponding needs and the money to satisfy them.

Therefore, is it not plain, business sense to use DAILY NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING to secure sectional or national demand? The daily newspaper moves the goods five to ten times more quickly and more economically than any other medium because it is the daily buying counsel of all classes of people.

Issued by the Canadian Daily Newspapers Association.
